Pincos Sentenced To Thirty Months For Manslaughter

Former Hot Dog Stand Proprietor to Serve Term in Penitentiary After Conviction Following Death of Clarence Pappas; Judge Takes Into Account Previous Good Character of Accused

John Pincos, Esquimalt hot dog stand operator, was at noon today sentenced to thirty months in the penitentiary for the killing of Clarence Pappas, restaurateur, shot early on the morning of May 1, at the gate of the Peter Karras home, 235 Montreal Street, where Pappas lived.

Pincos was charged with and tried for murder.

The assize court jury last Saturday afternoon brought in a verdict of manslaughter against him.

H. W. Davey, defence counsel, made a final plea for leniency for Pincos when the court assembled for the sentencing.

"It may seem strange to ask for this when Pincos went into the box and admitted guilt," said Mr. Davey. "Yet, all the witnesses for the prosecution spoke well of the accused, indicating that the accused could not be a bad man or vicious."

Mr. Davey also asked for consideration because of Pincos's state of health at the time of the killing.

He pointed out that if Pincos were given a long sentence he would be an old man and useless when he got out.

Prosecutor Carew Martin made no comment.

Albert Heald, ex-rev. of Esquimalt and present councillor, went in the box and testified he had known Pincos since 1919 and he had been a good citizen in Esquimalt, paying his bills, keeping his promises, and conducting his hot-dog stand without trouble to the police.

"It calls for tact and good management to run that kind of a place without trouble," Councillor Heald added.

Army Drops Out of the Sky For Sham Battle

In this remarkable photograph, perhaps a pictorial prophecy of one form of attack in the warfare of tomorrow, an army is pictured literally dropping out of the sky and advancing to the attack. A few minutes before, this had been a peaceful country meadow in the Kiev district of Soviet Russia, with the sky above clear of anything but clouds. Suddenly squads of planes appeared and disgorged many parachutes. Here, after landing armed and ready for action, Russian infantrymen are shown rushing into formation, pending arrival of their descending comrades.

POPE URGING NO SANCTIONS

Suggests Nations Postpone Action Against Italy, Hoping For Ethiopia Peace

Associated Press
Rome, Nov. 14.—Pope Pius was understood authoritatively today to be making a supreme effort to have application of sanctions against Italy postponed.

Usually well-informed ecclesiastical sources said the Holy Father was still hopeful League of Nations powers would delay imposition of trade bans on Italy, for its warfare against Ethiopia, in the interest of world peace.

Some sources saw significance in Premier Mussolini's note this week to each of the League states agreeing to sanctions, in which he invited them by implication to reconsider their collective action.

In the note of protest, he reminded each nation of its "sovereign" power and asked now it intended to apply sanctions, the economic sanctions of which would become effective next Monday under the League decision.

In the meantime, Italy withheld reprisals until the punitive measures actually were imposed. This was interpreted by some circles as indicating that Italy would not be applied and might be modified.

The papal nuncio at Paris had already become extremely active in presenting the Vatican views to Premier Laval of France.

Ecclesiastical sources said it was the Vatican's belief that a delay in sanctions not only would spare the world great economic disorder, but also would increase tremendously chances for settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian war which might come through collapse of the Ethiopian resistance.

Large Percentage of Voters are Women; Results in One-third of Commons Constituencies Will Be Made Public This Evening; Premier Baldwin's Vote Cast in London

By GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
London, Nov. 14.—Britain went to the polls to-day. In some districts by 7 o'clock, but generally by 8, electors were rolling up to the polling booths.

The weather favored the early voters for it was generally fair. In many places the sun broke through November clouds. But showers came in some areas during the afternoon, with the weather again clearing in the evening.

ITALY TROOPS EXTEND GAINS

Claim 5,875 Square Miles of North Ethiopia Now Held

Associated Press
Makale, Ethiopia, Nov. 14.—Italy had acquired about 5,875 square miles of northern Ethiopian territory to-day, with annexation of east Tigre province.

The acquisition embraces all territory so far occupied by Italian troops on the Eritrean front. It includes eastern Ethiopia to a point about ten miles south of Makale and western Ethiopia to a point about fifteen miles south of Adwa and Aksum.

Territory of at least as large an area had been taken by the Italian forces operating from Italian Somaliland, in southeastern Ethiopia.

The northern army routed out Ethiopian bands, which were waging guerrilla warfare within the Italian lines, to make more secure its grip on the newly annexed eastern Tigre region.

An Italian major of artillery, Aldo del Monte, was killed with two native troops in guerrilla fighting in the Gheraia region. The Italian command announced.

In London, Prime Minister Baldwin won early. Shortly after 10.30 Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin drove from Downing Street to the polling station at Caxton Hall, Westminster.

Women largely outnumbered men among the early voters. In London city girl typists registered their votes on the way to their offices. Housewives voted early and then returned home. Farm laborers rattled over country roads. Autos bearing party slogans rounded up the infirm and hesitant.

FORTY BY ACCLAMATION
The electors, numbering 51,552,269, of whom 16,550,270 are women, were called on to choose 575 members of the new Commons. Forty others were elected by acclamation, namely, government 28, opposition 14.

Declaration will be made to-night in 235 divisions (232 members), and tomorrow in 333 divisions (329 members). The remaining ten constituencies (fourteen members) will be announced Saturday and next week.

CABINET MEMBERS
Six cabinet members will know their fate to-night: Sir Samuel Hoare, Sir Kingsley Wood, Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Lord Eustace Percy, Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas and Sir Godfrey Collins.

To-night's results will be mainly from borough constituencies, where Labour expects to take its heaviest gains. Labor victories may therefore be expected to predominate in the first day's count. Votes of rural divisions generally counted to-morrow will likely tell another story.

CENTENARIANS VOTE
Two centenarians voted, one at Canterbury, the other at Brighton. Both are women. Noella Adam, a girl of twelve and a half, voted in the Hatfield division of Hertfordshire. Noella, who went with her parents to the polling station, said she had received notices from both candidates. Having voted, Noella went to school. Her parents said they had no idea how her name came to be on the voting register.

Panic In Shanghai On Japan Invasion Rumors

Many Thousands Flee From Native Sections to Foreign Concessions, Though Japanese Leaders Deny They Plan Occupation

Associated Press
Shanghai, Nov. 14.—Conditions of near panic prevailed to-day in the native quarter, as rumors of an impending Japanese attack spread through its teeming Chinese-administered districts.

Thousands of families hastily gathered their possessions and joined refugees in the venture to the foreign-controlled area which has been going on since the slaying of Hideo Nakayama, Japanese marine, last Saturday.

To-night's influx of refugees rivalled the number of the night of the slaying. The main roads of entry to the International Settlement and the French Concession were clogged with junks, carts, vans and taxis, all loaded to overflowing.

Hotel-keepers and landlords who have lately bemoaned the depression are doing a land office business.

Efforts of the authorities to placate the public fears are futile in the face of the rumors. Reports that Japanese marines intend to occupy the (Turn to Page 2, Col. 7)

Date Set For Supreme Court Hearing on Bennett Social Measures

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Chief Justice Duff to-day set January 15 as the date for hearing the reference on validity of social legislation enacted at the last session of Parliament.

Argument of the Dominion and the provinces on the reference is expected to be lengthy.

Montreal, Nov. 14.—Cansas ranging as high as $8 were marked up on the Montreal Stock Exchange to-day as prices spurred forward under the leadership of metal and distillery shares.

Strength of the market was due to a rise in active and buoyant market in Wall Street and a good display in London.

Judge Ellis Scanning McGee and Webster Ballots While Supreme Court Test of Authority Awaited

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Nov. 14.—The judicial recount of 137 polls of the Vancouver-Burrard federal constituency was completed to-day by Judge J. N. Ellis, whose status as senior county court judge is questioned in quo warranto proceedings launched in the B.C. Supreme Court to determine by what authority he is holding the recount.

The Supreme Court hearing is scheduled for November 18.

Counting of the absentee vote, which favored Arnold-Webster, O.C.F., by 43 to 35 votes over his Liberal opponent, Mayor G. G. McGee, has begun. Three of these ballots have already been rejected by Judge Ellis and a number of other votes are being held for further consideration.

Thus far in the count Mayor McGee has unofficially made a gain of fourteen votes in the 193 polls. Web-

Closed Hospitals In B.C. Advocated

Mayor Leeming Offers Suggestion For Correction of Hospital Financing in Convention Address

A policy of closed hospitals for British Columbia into which only bona-fide hospital cases would be admitted, was advocated by Mayor Leeming as a means of correcting the present hospital financial situation in the province, in an address to the eighteenth annual convention of the British Columbia Hospitals' Association in the Empress Hotel this morning.

The mayor, criticized financing of the institutions in this province, claiming this burden should not fall upon municipalities. He charged that doctors made a convenience of hospitals in treating indigent cases.

Mayor Leeming, who was unable to attend the opening yesterday, extended the official welcome of the city to the hospital delegates.

FRAISES SISTERS
He referred to the pioneering work in hospitalization carried on in Victoria by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

The way hospital charges in B.C. are assessed against municipalities was very wrong, the mayor said. The way these charges were being made was breaking the backs of the municipalities of the province.

Hospitals were a social service (Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

New Fields For Gold Prospectors

Dr. C. Cammell Tells Institute of Mining of Geological Surveys in British Columbia and Elsewhere

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Nov. 14.—Hitherto unclassified regions believed favorable for gold production in the west and copper-nickel mineralization and natural gas-petroleum areas in the east have been disclosed this year by the federal $1,000,000 geological surveys and investigation programme, Dr. Charles Cammell said to-day.

Although the field parties have not yet had time to compile their complete reports, the programme has been successful in classifying these unknown districts, the Deputy Minister of Mines told delegates to the western meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

Not only were mineral and oil possibilities investigated, Dr. Cammell said, but modes of occurrence of asbestos deposits in southern Quebec, and the scarcity of water for domestic and agricultural use in the southern prairie region were also studied.

HIG AREAS COVERED

The programme, which got under way last June, embodied sixty-five projects, spread over the Yukon, Northwest Territories and every province with the exception of Prince Edward Island. Close to 1,000 persons were employed in the 188 field parties which engaged on the geological and topographical surveys.

The reconnaissance of the Yellowknife River district in the Northwest Territories disclosed that approximately 2,500 square miles, or 30 per cent of the area, could be classified as gold prospecting territory, the Deputy Minister said.

IN CRANBROOK AREA

The party working in the Cranbrook area of British Columbia found that tests should be made of certain tertiary gold-bearing gravels, which have been given scant consideration, Dr. Cammell said, while examination of mining properties in the vicinity of the main line of the Canadian National Railway in this province has directed attention to the economic possibilities of the region.

Northern Route For Planes Found

Dr. C. Cammell Tells of Survey of Gap in Mountains in Northern Region of B.C. For Transcanada Service

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Nov. 14.—A 190-mile-wide gap in Canada's towering western mountain ranges was described yesterday as nearly perfect for a transcanada air route by Dr. Charles Cammell. The federal Deputy Minister of Mines told delegates to the western meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy of the natural air-route gateway to the coast. He discovered it during his recent aerial tour of northern British Columbia, southeastern Yukon and the region from the Mackenzie district to the Arctic Ocean.

Far up in British Columbia's hinterland, close to the borders of the Yukon and the Northwest Territories, the Rocky Mountain range pinches out and between there and the start of the Mackenzie range is the gap which is the only wide opening of the Canadian Cordillera, Dr. Cammell said. It offered far less hazardous flying conditions than any other gateway to the coast, he said, not only because of its width but because it has from 1,000 to 1,700 feet less altitude than other mountain passes, and, in addition is of a flat plateau nature with easily adaptable landing features.

The opening, Dr. Cammell declared, was a continuation of the great plains area, spreading out into a plateau region west of the southern tip of the Mackenzie Mountains and the northern tip of the Rockies and extending to the Casuar range. The Liard River flows through the gap between the Rockies and the Mackenzie range.

DECLINE TO SET POLICY

School Board Passes on to Incoming Board Matter of Outside Students

The City School Board yesterday evening declined to set a definite policy regarding the free attendance at Victoria High School of students whose parents reside outside the city but who represent big tax-paying firms in Victoria.

After considerable debate the board decided to leave the matter to the incoming body following the civic elections.

It did, however, give special consideration to two cases of that nature and, on the recommendation of George H. Deane, municipal inspector, decided to allow the students in question to complete the school year without payment of fees.

Mr. Deane noted that according to the School Act children of parents not resident in the city but paying taxes to the city in excess of $75 a year were entitled to attend the city school.

Mr. Bedaux plans to return to this province for a big game hunt, but he has not revealed when this expedition will take place.

Why is Trust Company service economical?

Most individual executors, being unfamiliar with the duties and legal requirements pertaining to estates, are bewildered. Without such knowledge the administration will prove costly.

A trust company moves economically and surely, guided by its wealth of experience in every phase of administration.

May we explain in an informal talk some of the economies that are effected when this Company acts as executor and trustee?

N. M. Foulkes Announces
Retirement From Ladysmith Board of Trade

Ladysmith, Nov. 14.—N. M. Foulkes tendered his resignation as president of the Board of Trade at the regular meeting held here Tuesday evening. Mr. Foulkes, who is retiring from lengthy service with the Bank of Commerce, plans to make his home in Ladysmith. The board, on the motion of T. Collinge, recorded appreciation of his sterling work.

Lieut.-Col. A. T. Powell and R. Simpson, representing Diamond district residents, appeared before the board to enlist interest in matters of special concern to the district.

The Bush Creek channel near the bay has shoaled in several places, and log jams are frequent up the stream run is practically blocked. The delegation believed that a slight clearance of the channel would tend towards the conservation of fish by allowing the salmon to reach the spawning pools.

The board will take the matter up with the district inspector of fisheries. Mature oyster leases in this area are subjected to an annual provincial tax of $5 an acre, while the tax in other districts in the province is $1. The Department of Lands at Victoria will again be asked to investigate the matter with a view towards obtaining equitable terms for local oyster fishing activities.

EUTHANASIA

THE AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE
Euthanasia Society of Great Britain are commanding world-wide attention following the admission of some prominent medical practitioners that they have put out of their misery patients who have been afflicted with incurable diseases and wanted to pass away. The Euthanasia Society is reported to be preparing a bill for submission to the House of Lords to legalize voluntary death. The measure, it is said, would require the patient who seeks merciful, permanent oblivion to sign an application form, after which a referee would conduct an examination of the applicant and determine whether the application should be granted or not. The applicant then would be allowed seven days in which to change his or her mind.

Many distinguished persons are supporting this movement, including eminent medical men, scholars, publicists and a number of ecclesiastics, noteworthy among whom is Dean Inge. On the other side are to be found people of equal eminence, and the prospects are that in view of its wide implications the measure proposed by the Euthanasia Society will not be adopted. It is too controversial and the issues involved in it are too vital to gain the confidence or approval of more than a minority element of society in its present state of development.

It requires but a mere glance at the social fabric to convince many people that it is still far removed from the condition in which it would be safe to legalize suicide in any cases or under any auspices. Who, after all, is competent to define with certainty what is curable or incurable except in very limited instances? Medical science is admittedly still in an early stage of development, otherwise doctors would not differ.

The patients themselves can not be the arbiters, for the world is full of people who suffer keenly from ailments which exist only in their own minds; neurasthenics and hypochondriacs who are in greater misery than many who really have maladies for which so far no cure has been found. In the final analysis, the arbitrament of such matters as life and death, concerning which nobody on this earth in a secular sense has any knowledge, rests with a higher power and intelligence than frail mankind, no matter how eminent, possesses. It is well to remember that society in the mass is still very immature, so much so that it is contemplating—not euthanasia as an instrument of mercy—but the massacre of its finest manhood as an incident of merciless war.

AN ABLE OFFICIAL

AT THE AGE OF SEVENTY-SEVEN,
Hon. Martin Burrell, parliamentary librarian at Ottawa since 1920, is about to retire from his public duties. He was formerly Minister of Agriculture and Secretary of State in the Borden government.

Mr. Burrell came to Canada in 1883, engaged in horticulture on the Niagara Peninsula, afterwards he went into fruit growing in this province. He was fruit commissioner and lecturer for the British Columbia government in England during the years of 1907 and 1908. He was seriously injured in the fire which destroyed the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa in February, 1916.

The retiring parliamentary librarian was in Victoria last when the Prince of Wales came to British Columbia in 1919. He was one of the party. Prior to that, on the occasion of the Union government campaign in 1917, he appeared on the platform of the Royal Victoria Theatre.

Besides being a capable chief of the important parliamentary library at Ottawa, Mr. Burrell has found time to establish himself as a successful author. He has made a number of contributions to Canadian literature, and his interest in promising young authors is proverbial. That interest found scope not long ago in the genius of Miss Audrey Brown of Vancouver Island, and was an important factor in the records of distinction this gifted authoress has gained throughout the English-speaking world.

Mr. Burrell's legion of friends will wish for him many pleasant years in his retirement, and will hope, also, that he will continue his work for the advancement of Canadian literature.

TROUBLE IN EGYPT

ANTI-BRITISH DEMONSTRATIONS IN
Egypt are not a novelty, but in London it is believed that the present rioting there is the outcome of Italian propaganda. It is well known that an Italian station has been broadcasting in Arabic matter designed to inflame the populace against Great Britain, while among the 50,000 Italians in Egypt are agitators who have been provoking trouble for a long time. The British government is reported to have protested to Rome against this course, and the present outburst is bound to increase the tension between Great Britain and Italy and may influence the British naval authorities to maintain their naval strength in the Mediterranean.

A British protectorate over Egypt was declared in 1914. It was recognized by France, Russia, the United States and a number of small European powers. That protectorate still exists, but Italy has been particularly hostile to it and for some years has been trying to undermine it. When British naval power was recently increased in the Mediterranean, the admiralty decided to transfer the main base from Malta to Alexandria with an assurance to the Egyptian government that there would be no infringement of Egyptian sovereignty. This transfer was seized upon by Italian propagandists as a means of further inflaming anti-British sentiment.

It seems to be obvious that Mussolini's activities in Africa, whether in Egypt or Ethiopia, are merely so many parts of a programme designed to make Italy mistress of the Mediterranean, to cut Britain's connection with India and to revive the old Roman Empire with himself as another Augustus. It is a crazy conception, impossible of fulfilment, but it is the only means by which the Fascist dictator believes he can maintain his dictatorship.

IMPROVEMENT IN HEALTH

THE GREAT STRIDES THAT PUBLIC
health has made in America in the present generation are strikingly illustrated by a remark by Dr. George Crile of Cleveland before the twenty-fifth clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons, in San Francisco.

One of every seventeen persons in the United States and Canada went to hospitals last year," said Dr. Crile. "But that is much less than one decade ago, when one of ten went to a hospital annually." Here is unmistakable evidence of a sharp rise in the general level of public health. A number of factors are responsible; advances in the science of medicine itself, unceasing vigilance on the part of public health departments, and general improvement in health education of the public at large.

Canada must make refunds of dumping duties levied by the late government on arbitrary valuations on British goods imported into this country in contravention of the empire preferential agreements. A year ago the Canadian tariff board ruled that the government had no power to collect these duties, but the government continued to do so by order-in-council. Now, the Exchequer Court of Canada in a stated case has decided that the charges were invalid. Government by order-in-council in this instance is likely to cost the federal treasury a tidy sum.

The reciprocity agreement negotiated between Canada and the United States will not require the approval of either the Canadian Parliament or the Congress at Washington. According to report from Ottawa the government is acting under authority conferred upon it some years ago by Parliament, which authorized it to make such reductions in customs duties as it deemed to be desirable. The president is acting under the powers conferred upon him by the Congress to negotiate trade treaties with other nations. Nevertheless, the agreement is bound to be discussed in both legislative bodies.

There are many indications that Mussolini is not as confident of Italy's ability to withstand the sanctions which the League of Nations proposes to apply on November 18 as he pretends to be. His course in addressing a note to each member of the League instead of the Geneva organization as a whole was intended to undermine such solidarity of policy as exists in favor of carrying out the terms of the covenant. The sanctions are not nearly as drastic as they might be, but Italy's domestic economic condition is so bad that if the League stands firmly together and its hands are not tied, it might threaten the existence of the Fascist government.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

THE END OF TOLL

I wonder what is more important here
Than bread and milk and healthy roguish cheeks.
A little garden blossoming every year,
And the first sentence which the baby speaks.
All labor and all wisdom lead to these:
A fireplace where the mother sits and sews,
Dinners and suppers and occasional teas,
Birthdays and feast days to the long year's close.
Fame blows her trumpet; fortune waves her hand,
Soldiers go forth to battle and to die!
Still at the doorway where the loved ones stand
The best delights of fame and fortune lie.

These make man's life, however high he rises,
His family's welfare and its mirth and song.
His home contented, lit by laughing eyes,
If these be right, then little else is wrong.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

"ALL TAKE THE CASE"
The Halifax Herald

One of the surest ways for a country to keep out of war is to refuse to sell any foreign country anything whatever on the installment plan.

CANADA'S EL DORADO
The Calgary Herald

The Boston Transcript says: "In August last Ontario produced 189,249 ounces of gold and 64,612 ounces of silver, of a total value of $6,627,242. Did California ever do better in one month in the early days of the 'forty-niners'?"

SOMETIMES UNPLEASANT
The Timmins Advertiser

Alderman J. F. Semple, chairman of the relief committee of the town council at Chilliwack, British Columbia, recently demanded that the council immediately release him from the relief chairmanship. "I have been struck in the face with broom handles, kicked by irate relief recipients and bombarded with anonymous letters of most unpleasant nature," he told the council.

While the British Columbia alderman may have been more wrongly treated than the average relief chairman, it is a fact the work in most cases has proven most unpleasant. Because of the evil work of agitators and because of the tendency on the part of some to make a regular racket of relief the work of the chairman of relief committees as well as the lives of relief officers have been difficult and unpleasant.

TRY IT OUT ON ALBERTA
The Detroit News

We and the Townsends solemnly give thanks for the elevation of the Aberhart regime to power in Alberta—the Townsends because something very like their own scheme at last is to be given a practical try-out and because the try-out will take place somewhere other than in our beloved U.S.A. Of course, the $45 to $75 monthly which Mr. Aberhart has promised so blithely to all Albertans is not exactly the $200 a month that Dr. Townsend would distribute solely to those who are over sixty years of age. But the claims made for the two schemes, as to their effect on the national and provincial economy in general, and the legends proposed for raising the necessary funds, are near enough alike to make the test, at least, interesting. We share with the Townsends the hope that, since Alberta seems willing, no constitutional difficulty will arise to prevent this experiment from going the whole route.

Loose Ends

Perhaps it is too early to crow—a strange and harrowing tale comes from James Bay—where culture is culture and stove lids fly through the air with the greatest of ease—and the obscene spectacle continues.

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

PREMATURE

IT IS NOW CONCEALED that the camouflaged Tory government of Britain will be re-elected at the polls, possibly losing its fanciest piece of window dressing, that eminent stuffed shirt, Lord Ramsay MacDonald. Thus there is great rejoicing among reactionaries the world over and such is the genius of the Baldwin, Hoare, and Edens in the higher forms of party politics, that when the government is returned it will seem like a triumph for patriotism for England, for civilization itself. Everybody will feel good. Everybody will feel that the empire has been saved and the white races vindicated.

This is all very nice. You would think that the election of this week settled the question of the government, but it seems to forget that it settled only the government of England for about four years. Four years are nothing in the life of a country. The real significance of the election, if the prophets are right, will not be the victory of the government, but the increasing strength of the Socialist opposition. If the Socialists gain heavily now, they probably will win four years from now. That is the thing to watch. It is too early yet to congratulate yourself on the salvation of the empire this week.

JAMES BAY SAGA

IT IS WITH MIXED emotions of cultural satisfaction and a certain wistfulness that one reads of the police court case in which a lady from James Bay was lectured by Magistrate Jay for throwing stove lids at her host. It is satisfactory, in this city of culture to know that the argument was not a cheap and stupid dispute over a horse race or an election. It was on a highly intellectual plane throughout, according to the report in the "Post" and "Advertiser," the modern Victorians, like some of the ancient Greeks, are concerned less with worldly things than with matters of the mind and spirit, with culture in its purest sense. That is to say, the argument which ended with stove lids was over the spelling of the word "sure."

In James Bay, one gathers, there are two well-established schools of thought on that highly technical question, as well there may be. In more backward regions of the world the natives may accept the ordinary spelling because they have not had the advantages of James Bay's culture, which prompts the student to go deep into these matters and revel in the infinite possibilities of a word like "sure." In other places such things may be taken for granted through ignorance. The critical James Bay mind, yearning, like Tennyson's Ulysses, in desire for a wider knowledge, will not accept these snap and shallow judgments. The James Bay mind goes deeper and throws stove lids.

SORDID SIDE

THIS ASPECT OF THE CASE was satisfactory, indeed, to the student and to all those who have the welfare of our English language and its spelling at heart. But, surprisingly enough, there is a less elevating side to this story of stove lids. Apparently as the lady argued that "sure" should be spelled in one way and her host argued that it should be spelled in another, the wife of the host looked on, the disputants threw balls of paper at one another; just playfully, you know, with no harm intended in the quaint old James Bay fashion.

But as the argument grew more complicated and delirious deeper into pure abstract culture, the lady guest, affixed with the sheer ecstasy of the scholar, picked up a stove lid and heaved it at her host; all of course, in the pursuit of learning and according to the immortal James Bay custom. The stove lid is reported to have struck the other scholar on the side of the face and cut him in two industry. And when they move away

Salica-Escobar

Fight To-morrow

New York, Nov. 14.—Two small packages of flat dynamite will be thrown into the Madison Square Garden ring to-morrow night, and the resultant detonation is expected to blow Lou Salica off the bantam-weight throne.

Sixto Escobar, little Puerto Rican gamecock, never has been convinced that Salica really earned the decision he was awarded when they clashed early last September in a bout for New York recognition as titleholder. The bout is scheduled for fifteen rounds.

Cleveland, Nov. 14.—Danno O'Mahoney, the heavyweight wrestler, tugged and pulled for an hour here yesterday evening, but the best he could get out of his wrestling match with Ernie Dusek, Omaha, Neb., was a draw.

It was the first time O'Mahoney has failed to win the decision since he stepped into the wrestling pit more than a year ago.

SCHOOLS NEED FIRE MATERIAL

Equipment to Combat Possible Blazes Inadequate, Board Told

Victoria's public schools are inadequately equipped with fire-fighting materials, it was revealed at yesterday evening's meeting of the City School Board.

That fact was disclosed following the reading of a special letter from Fire-Chief Alex. Munroe which was turned over to the building and grounds committee for consideration.

Excerpts of the communication read as follows:

"I would like to bring before the Board of School Trustees a number of items which I consider should receive their serious consideration, and would recommend as follows:

"1. As recommended in 1934, that standard fire-alarm systems be installed, independent of other alarms used during the school hours.

"2. As recommended in 1934, that the exit in South Park School adjoining the stage in the auditorium be made more accessible to pupils while in the auditorium.

"3. That metal containers or metal-lined bins be provided in the manual training centres for shavings, etc.

"4. That a fire extinguisher be provided in the laboratory of Victoria High School.

HOSE ROTTEN

"5. That fire hose be replaced on standpipes which have recently been tested."

Trustee Charles Bishop stated the fire hose in the schools had been tested and found rotten.

He should be replaced, he said, stating that hoses in many schools would not stand pressure.

To meet the suggestion for an alarm system, Trustee Percy George brought forward the idea that the scheme of the municipal inspector, George H. Deane, to install telephones in the schools, should be carried out.

Trustee Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin stated the fire hazard in Victoria College was extremely dangerous.

All matters were referred to the building and grounds committee for consideration and possible recommendations.

This Shows WHY You Get Such Fast Relief from "ASPIRIN"

WHY "ASPIRIN" WORKS SO FAST

Drop an "Aspirin" Tablet in a glass of water. Note that BEFORE it touches bottom of the glass it has started to disintegrate. What it does in this glass it does in your stomach. Hence its fast action.

Quick Relief for Headaches, Neuritis, Rheumatic Pains

The old adage says, "what you see you believe." So the nurse, pictured above, shows you two actual photographs to prove the quick action of "ASPIRIN."

Look at them, and you will see one reason why Scientists rate "ASPIRIN" among the fastest agents, now known or ever known, for the relief of headaches, neuritis, neuralgia and rheumatic pains. You'll see that an "Aspirin" tablet, dropped into a glass of water, starts to disintegrate, or dissolve, before it hits the bottom of the glass. Hence, is ready to go to work almost instantly you take one. For what happens in this glass happens in your stomach when you take an "ASPIRIN" tablet. Relief comes in a few minutes.

TELLS NEEDS OF HOSPITALS

Dr. Malcolm T. MacEachern, Chicago, Addresses Convention Here

Six qualifications for efficient hospitals were outlined by Dr. Malcolm T. MacEachern, Chicago, associate director of the American College of Surgeons, in a luncheon address to delegates to the eighteenth annual convention of the British Columbia Hospitals' Association at the Jubilee Hospital yesterday.

The luncheon was tendered by the directors and Hugh Allan, president, extending a welcome on behalf of his fellow directors on the board.

Hospitals to-day were divisible into six classes on a quality basis, Dr. MacEachern said. First were the commercial hospitals, or "joint" as the doctor described them. They were state or county institutions operated for profit, but were fast disappearing because they were ceasing to show dividends. These institutions pretended to give proper care to multiple and relief cases at a cost of $1 a day, while in any properly fitted hospital this cost ranged from $3.50 to $4.50 a day, he said.

These county hospitals had become overcrowded with the result that the charity cases in the voluntary or more efficient hospitals had increased from 2 per cent in 1929 to 48 per cent, Dr. MacEachern said.

STAGNANT HOSPITALS
The second type were the stagnant hospitals—institutions which were non-progressive and had no desire to advance. These, he said, took no part in the general welfare of the community in respect of improving health standards.

Third were the minimum hospitals, those that "just get by" at a minimum cost and were just within the boundaries of approved institutions. Fourth were the mediocre hospitals which he described as "not so good and not so bad."

The progressive and eminent types of hospitals were the fifth and sixth types and into these classifications fell leading hospitals of the continent. There were 113 of these in Canada and United States, and it was planned to place in them thousands of the waiting young surgeons who are seeking practical employment.

"The distinction of your hospital, will be known by the care you render your patients and this care depends on the type of service you render them," Dr. MacEachern said.

FREE FROM HAZARD
In outlining the qualifications for leading hospitals he stated that the physical plant and equipment were among the fundamentals. Every hospital should be free from hazard and fireproof and offer the patient every physical comfort possible. In this respect Dr. MacEachern stressed the need for beauty in hospital surroundings, stating beautiful rooms were a material aid in helping the patient get better.

In beautifying the institution care should be taken not to be extravagant, he continued.

The equipment in proper hands meant a great deal to the patient, he said, adding "good instruments sometimes do as much as human endeavor can do."

A proper governing body of the hospital was another essential qualification. The boards should be free from politics, and all members should be desirous of working towards the common goal—the good of the hospital. They should be men of judicious minds, he said.

The superintendent of a hospital should have good executive and administrative ability and must be a specialist in hospital administration, Dr. MacEachern said.

An ethical and competent medical staff was another essential for an efficient institution. Most hospitals to-day were known by the type of men they had on their staffs.

NURSING STAFF
The nursing service and food service were also important factors, it being possible for a hospital with all other proper qualifications to fall down without a proper nursing staff. He stressed the need for competent dieticians on the staff.

One of the things lacking in modern hospitals were medical social service departments, Dr. MacEachern thought. This was a branch which could be developed towards greatly improving the standard of an institution.

The speaker was introduced by E. W. Neel, president of the association. Alderman John Worthington extended a welcome to the delegates on behalf of the city and assured the co-operation of the City Council in making the convention a success.

Reeve William Crouch of Saanich, offered felicitations from his municipality and expressed best wishes for the success of the convocation.

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

NOVEMBER 14, 1910
(From The Times Files)

Surmounting the hurdles and all other obstacles which appeared in the course with the ease and perfection of experienced horsemen and horsewomen, the initial run of the Victoria Hunt Club on Saturday afternoon was a complete success, about twenty participating in this notable event. Some ten riders, including Mrs. Cox, Calgary; Miss Violet Pooley, Lieut. Moore and Lieut. Holt of H.M.C.S. Rainbow; Capt. Macdonald and Major Bennett of Work Point barracks, and Messrs. Henderson and Williams were in at the "death."

The champion rugby team of Victoria on Saturday afternoon beat the best aggregation of rugby footballers that ever left Vancouver, and the first two points of the score towards the retention of the McKinnon Cup here for another year are recorded. The score was 8 to 0. Vancouver was out-generalled, Victoria forwards were not in the best of shape as they were not as conditioned as Vancouver. If they had been the score in the second half would have been something like the 23 to 0 game a few weeks ago.

to quote the expression of the immortal Sam Weller "they swelled visibly" did the seven boys of the cruiser Rainbow as they took course after course at dinner on Saturday night. The boys were the guests of the city at the Dominion Hotel, and were in charge of Gunner Eason, one of their instructors, and H. F. Fuller of The Times staff who had undertaken to look after them while in town.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Beauchamp Tye was hostess at a tea given in honor of Mrs. G. B. Hughes, a recent Victoria bride. The house was charmingly decorated for the occasion and Mrs. Tye was assisted by Mrs. Wulfschlag and Mrs. Harry Pooley.

BLIND VIOLINIST
IN NBC RECITAL

Edward Grasse, blind violinist who won first prize with distinction at the Brussels conservatory when he was fifteen years old, and who made his professional debut with the Berlin Philharmonic before he was twenty, will play for radio listeners during the NBC broadcast over a coast-to-coast network at 10.30 a.m., P.S.T., to-morrow.

Grasse has been blind all his life, but he is a talented organist and composer as well as a violinist. He is a native of New York, but went to Brussels when he was fourteen to study, remaining there three and a half years. After playing with the Berlin Philharmonic some time, he returned to the United States and went on tour. He will give a recital in Carnegie Hall later this winter.

KFO heads the western network releasing the broadcast.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

MOTHER'S EMOTIONS CANNOT
"MARK" UNBORN CHILD

There have always been some babies born into the world bearing slight or serious skin imperfections.

Formerly such birth marks were interpreted according to what they most nearly resembled. If they were spotty and red they were called strawberry marks and the mother coddled her brains to try to account for their presence on her baby's skin. Port wine stains were dark purplish patches. In addition there are large and small material, flat or raised above the skin, patches of hair, and many other marks, all of them marring the baby's perfection.

NOT MOTHER'S DOING

Always the mother felt herself to blame, for consciously or other wise, she was sure that in a moment of strain and emotional upheaval she had unwittingly "touched" her own skin and this mark on her baby was the result.

All of this is getting to be very much past history. We know, or should know, that these "marks" indicate only that, during the time when two initial cells are being increased to millions of cells, there has been a slight slip. Unhappy sights and frights of any kind may set up an emotional disturbance in the mother, but they are powerless to affect the baby.

NO NERVE REACHES BABY

The baby is isolated in a little nitch of its own, and there no nerve messages can reach it. It is oblivious to its mother's nervous or emotional reactions, as it should be.

The mother's influence on the child's development is no less a vital one, but it is under her control. She must provide her body with the proper nutrition so that in building up the rapidly increasing numbers of cells there will be ample building material. The baby's entire nourishment from the mother. It is affected by her own state of health, but mercifully it is spared any accidental damage because of the mother's temporary emotions.

MARKS REMOVED

Our leaflet, "Pre-natal Care," will help the mother to live wisely and healthfully during this important period. It may be had for a self-addressed, 3-cent stamped envelope sent to Myrtle Meyer Eldred of the "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper.

Any skin imperfections the baby may suffer are usually removable. A good surgeon or dermatologist is indicated when the baby would suffer humiliation, unhappiness or social handicaps because of them.

To-morrow: "Mrs. Eldred Outlines Menus for Baby's Simple Meals."

HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1935

Although astrologers read this as an unimportant day it is indeed a beneficent one. "It is time for taking good of one's self."

This is read as an auspicious day for both to seek political preferment. Both men and women should benefit, for those who dispense patronage are supposed to seek efficiency instead of political expediency.

Labor is again under an ill omen that seems to be trouble for federal policies. The winter is likely to be a severe one, with serious difficulties, if Saturn's influence is rightly measured.

This is a fortunate rule for buyers and sellers. New fortunes are to be made in the coming year, when scientists will profit and bankers benefit.

Signs appear to emphasize the fact that men will assume leadership subordinate to women. Again there will be rivalry for recognition in business and politics.

Great enterprises in nursing and in hospital care are forecast for the next year. Philanthropists will have special reason to provide for the ill and disabled. Astrologers place special stress upon importance of feeding the young and salving the human mind. The year draws to a close, for the winter is to be severe.

Persons whose birthday is in the month of November are especially favored. Small troubles may be irritating, but they are usually of little consequence.

Children born on this day probably will be devoted to serious studies. Subjects of the year usually are given in the arts and able to express their ideas in setting or through the written word.

A. D. Davidson, editor, was born on this day, 1818. Others who have celebrated it are: William Wordsworth, William Herschel, astronomer, 1793; Richard Henry Dana, poet and novelist, 1797; and Thurston Wood, journalist and politician, 1877.

"I discovered my boy was almost blind in one eye"

"He never suspected it, either, until one day, at school, they had a test. He couldn't see the letters on the chart when he shut his right eye."

"We're correcting it now, and—if he wears his glasses constantly for a few years—his sight will be normal when he goes to college."

Thus, over the patient customers head, Ruth was hired as housekeeper-maid by Mrs. Jones and urged to report for duty at once. Mrs. Segwick agreed to take Ruth to the Jones home, show her the room and install her there before the children should arrive home from school.

Ruth found the ordeal of meeting

Maude and Grace Louise was a trivial

one. The children were so accustomed to the coming and going of housekeepers that when they arrived home to find a perfectly strange young woman baking cookies for them they took it as a matter of course.

"I'm Miss Woodson," Ruth told them. "I've come to keep house for you. Your mother told me to ask you if you'd rather have white bread or brown for supper."

"White," they replied in concert.

After staring at Ruth boldly for a few moments they went up to the small rear room of the box-like little house to inspect her possessions. No doubt the meagreness of Ruth's wardrobe caused them to lose interest in her. They soon went out to play with neighbors. Ruth did not, not even though to ask questions Ruth had dreaded.

When she called them in to get ready for supper she asked, "Do you drink plain milk, or do you have cocoa in the evening?"

"Neither one," answered Grace

Louise, the elder. "We're supposed to have milk." Their voices rose to a shrill crescendo of argument which Ruth interrupted to call them to supper. When they sat down at the table she noticed that they slumped untidily and spilled their water as they drank.

Ruth said, feeling her new responsibilities keenly, "I'd like you to sit straight as I'm doing. First unfold your napkin this way, do you see?

Then break your bread before you butter it. Your mother asked me to be careful about your manners."

"Oh, rats!" remarked Grace Louise rude. Ruth said that she was wearing lipstick. It came off on her napkin, along with the butter on her bread. Ruth, remembering Grace

Louise's twelve tender years, was a little horrified. She asked mildly,

"Does your mother know you wear lipstick, dear?"

"Sure," replied Grace Louise.

"That's a lie," said Maude. "She stole it out of Mom's box."

Ruth sighed and felt silent. She was humbly grateful for this work

this shifter which had so unexpectedly fallen to her lot. But she knew there was guile and unconviviality and loneliness ahead.

CHAPTER XXVIII

Florence McNeill Burr's husband and twin daughters were going to live.

The miraculous was to happen, after all. Broken bones had been set and wounds sewed. X-ray machines showed no internal injuries. The little girls had regained consciousness

before their grandmother and Uncle

John arrived, and Elwell Burr was now emerging from the slight confusion which had caused the doctors worry.

All were in the hospital, Mrs. Mc-Neill and her daughter remained there through the uncertain hours of

Tuesday, while John stayed at the Burr home to attend to the telephone calls that poured in. The brilliant young Elwell Burr stood high in the councils of the capitol. Both government heads and newspapers were concerned over the accident.

By Tuesday evening the real strain was over. With patience and careful nursing, the doctors agreed, all three

Beaux-Arts Will Hold Snow Ball

The Beaux-Arts will hold its annual "Snow Ball" dance at the Empress Hotel ballroom on December 26. Plans to this end were made at the meeting of the executive Tuesday evening, and Miss Pat McConnan was made convener of the dance.

The dramatic programme was prepared for the balance of the season, and it was decided the club would take part in the Dominion Drama Festival and the B.C.D.P. Brian Burdon Murphy was appointed chairman of dramatics with Miss Aileen Culham, vice-chairman. This appointment was necessary due to the resignation of Mrs. Simmonds.

Miss Helen Sweetland was appointed chairman of the programme committee in charge of the monthly meetings.

Mr. Dick Muirhead assumed the responsibilities of stage manager. Mr. Dick Airey was appointed to the executive in the publicity and promotion department.

The executive unanimously voted for the appointment of Miss Margery Benson as assistant director of the club. This appointment came to Miss Benson as a result of the talent she displayed in the musical and dramatic field and as a fitting recognition of her loyal support.

Seven new active members and ten associate members were accepted and passed by the executive. The members were most enthusiastic over the prospects of the 1935-36 season, and looking forward to November 28, which is the club's birthday, when a party will be held at the clubrooms, Blanshard and View Streets.

LIBRARIAN IS GIVEN HONOR

University Women's Club Make Miss Margaret Clay Honorary Member

In recognition of her valuable contribution to the cause of education, Miss Margaret J. Clay, librarian of the Victoria Public Library, was yesterday evening made an honorary member of the University Women's Club.

The honor was conferred at the meeting of the club, held at the Y.W.C.A., at which Miss Clay was the guest speaker. Dr. Olga Jardine, the president, in making the formal announcement, paid warm tribute to Miss Clay's valuable services to the community, which sentiments were endorsed by the enthusiastic applause of the gathering. The honorary membership was supplemented with a beautiful corsage bouquet, presented by Miss Dorothea Hay.

Taking as her subject "The Library, Its Place in the Community," Miss Clay traced the history of the Victoria Public Library since 1862, with special reference to Andrew Carnegie, who donated the library building.

Observing that Carnegie had done more for humanity than any other millionaire, the speaker recalled that between 1881 and 1917, he gave 3,000 library buildings, 2,000 of which are in Canada and the United States.

In 1917 the Carnegie Corporation was formed, with capital amounting to $55,000,000. In the same year, $10,000,000 was set aside for library extension in the British dominions and colonies, including grants to college and university libraries, rural service and training of librarianship. Other trusts had been founded in Great Britain.

ITS FUNCTIONS

Of the functions of libraries in general, Miss Clay noted that modern library service is based upon the right of every person to have free and ready access to literature—the record of the experiences of mankind, and on the belief that books are not luxuries, but necessities as vital as food.

She further elaborated on its func-

PRESS BALL DATE IS SET

Outstanding Entertainment Promised for Big Social Event of Season Next February

The date—February 14, 1936 St. Valentine's Day; the place—the Empress Hotel, the time—the evening and early morning; the event—the revival of the pre-depression Press Club ball, being staged by the British Columbia Institute of Journalists, branch in Victoria.

Novel entertainment, "super" music and a big crowd—these are the essential requirements for the success of the function. The institute has arranged for the first two and the third is up to Victoria's dancing public.

The 1936 press club ball promises to be the big event of the current social season. And what is more it will not be an expensive one. The ball committee met yesterday and arranged a price for the function.

The committee for the time being prefers to keep its entertainment plans secret. You remember the "old days"—publication of the Press Gang, the goody tabloid, and the hundreds of favors. The committee will not say "yes" or "no" about these, but admits they are being considered.

Obya Observes Armistice Day

The Obya held a special Armistice programme at the weekly meeting on Tuesday in the church parlors, with the president, Miss Jean Smith, in the chair. The devotional period was taken by Eric Yarnman and David Stott.

Mr. Simpson, a representative of the Young People's Union, was introduced to the society. He brought the oratorical contest to the attention of the members and also asked for co-operation with the union concerning union activities. The president welcomed the new members to the society.

After the business meeting adjourned, the convener for the evening, Miss Mary Sinclair, took charge. She gave an interesting paper apropos of Remembrance Day, "The Vision of the Crosses," by the Bishop of Calgary.

Next week Herbert Penderay will give an illustrated lecture on "The Ancient Temples of Angkor and Bangkok." The society is anxious to have as many members and friends of the Obya as possible attend this interesting meeting.

Stockings are being woven with crimson toes to save their wearers painting their feet when using sandals... solid, cold cream is now being sold in lipstick cases... tartan-patterned china is coming in as a complement to Lady Alice Scott, the Duke of Gloucester's Scots bride.

LIP-READING IS DEMONSTRATED

"To Help Others" is a motto that has been adopted by a number of the Hard of Hearing Clubs organized in Canada and it might well be selected as that of the Victoria club, as at each meeting since organized it has been evinced that the aim of all members is to help one another.

To date, the meetings, held every Wednesday evening, have taken the form of a social gathering at the conclusion of the business section. At the meeting held yesterday evening a demonstration of lip reading was given by Miss Cullington of Seattle, whose lip movements were characterized with mobility. A competition, "Nuts to Crack," proved an amusing test.

To raise money for the club a bridge and 500 party will be held on Wednesday, November 27, in Hamilton Hall, corner Burnside and Hillman Roads, through the kindness of the Burnside Bowling Club, who have loaned their hall for the occasion. Mrs. B. C. Combe, Mrs. Washington and Miss Carver were appointed a committee to make arrangements for the party. It is requested that friends of the members of the Victoria Hard of Hearing Club will help in this, the first undertaking of the club to raise funds by arranging to take tables for the entertainment.

Mrs. Hurley, Miss Carver and Mr. Washington were chosen as a hall committee.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Wednesday, November 30, in the Arts and Crafts rooms, opposite the post office. Refreshments are served at the close of each meeting.

New York, Nov. 14.—The diminutive mother of three children who holds the mountain climbing record for women never wants to scale a peak again. She longs for the mountainous quiet of the warm South Sea Islands.

those crossing the Himalaya in 1924. To newspapermen yesterday she confessed.

"I don't like mountain climbing at all. It is too strenuous. It is too dangerous. I only do it because I like my husband, Dr. Gustav Oskar Dyhrenfurth, so much."

She weighs only 112 pounds. She says she is thirty-eight years old.

In August, 1924, Mme. Dyhrenfurth climbed to the western summit of Queen Mary Peak in the Himalayas, a rise of 24,700 feet. That surpassed the then recognized women's mark of 23,000 feet.

SUNNY LIVING starts at the table

How you feel and how you look depend largely on the foods you eat. The balanced menu provides the "bulk" to prevent common constipation—caused by lack of this essential fiber.

Common constipation frequently causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy. Yet, in most cases, it can be overcome pleasantly and safely by eating a delicious cereal.

Kellogg's All-Bran is a natural food for normal individuals. It furnishes "bulk" in convenient and concentrated form. All-Bran also provides vitamin B and iron.

Isn't this sunny way better than taking potent medicines? Two tablespoons of All-Bran daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal. If relief is not obtained, see your doctor.

Serve All-Bran as a cereal, or use in cooking. Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Remembrance Day Service at Sooke

Sooke, Nov. 14.—Rev. G. McKenzie of Victoria conducted the Remembrance Day service at the Memorial on November 11. Acreman, and the members of the women's auxiliary to the Legion took up positions at the side of the monument. Taps were played by J. Martin, the master of the Boy Scouts. Wreaths were placed by the various organizations of the district, including the Sooke branch of the Canadian Legion, women's auxiliary to the Legion, Sooke Community Association, Sooke and North Sooke Women's Institute, women's auxiliary of Holy Trinity Church, Boy Scouts and Shirley Women's Institute.

REBUILDING OF PIANOS SHOWN

Fletcher Bros. Demonstrate Art of Renovating Interior of Instruments

During the present week Fletcher Bros. are demonstrating in their window display a "before" and "after" presentation of their skill in piano rebuilding.

"As piano dealers of more than sixty years' experience," says J. H. Fletcher, "we long ago made it a rule to thoroughly renovate any piano which came into our possession, so that it could be sold again with a positive guarantee that the instrument would give complete satisfaction."

"We have found that piano owners are invariably most careful about the outside condition of their instrument, but that year after year the inside receives no attention at all. Yet the felt, hammers, and keyboard action are the most perishable parts of a piano. Continuous use and the inroads of moth, and even mice, are things which are most destructive."

"Given a piano of well-known make and good quality and the thorough reconditioning methods we follow will make it practically as good as new," Mr. Fletcher said.

In charge of the piano rebuilding department at Fletcher Bros. is George W. Fugle, who has been with the firm for thirty-eight years. Mr. Fugle served his apprenticeship with the old Goodwin Piano Company, which actually manufactured pianos in Victoria half a century ago.

Mr. Fugle is recognized throughout Canada as one of the most skillful piano builders in the industry. His knowledge of makes, types and designs of pianos is profound, as he has actually worked upon hundreds of different makes manufactured in Canada and other parts of the world.

In charge of the piano polishing department is Bert Otton, who has spent a lifetime in the piano trade. He learned his business in the factory of Heintzman and Co., Toronto, manufacturers of Canada's finest pianos.

"SO THIS IS ADIGRAT!" IMAGINE HOW ITS CONQUERORS FELT

For months the Italian army in Eritrea prepared for the day when it would capture Adigrat, first objective in the great Adowa offensive. What must the Italian soldiers have thought when they gazed on this scene and realized that they had attained the long-cherished goal? ## GERMANY'S "HERR X"

Unknown Quantity in Reich Government, Otto Meissner Is Credited With Being Power Behind Hitler

London Correspondence of The Victoria Daily Times

London. — Presenting the slickest man in Europe—Herr Otto Meissner.

He is so smooth that the slickest oil that ever swam the seas is by comparison a chunky three-ton elephant. Germans do not know what to make of him. Socialist President Hindenburg, Socialist Democratic or Catholic Centre Chancellors, republican regime or Nazi power with iron hand—all look alike to him.

WORLD WAR VETERAN AND FORMER LAWYER

Others have had the skills put under them in the years since the end of the war. Meissner sticks. He is ambitious, but appears selfless. Others hold the glory. Meissner in many ways holds the power. He is Germany's great mystery, its unknown man, its quantity X.

Before his name became generally mentioned, little was heard of him, except that he was from south Germany, was trained as a lawyer and served as an officer in the World War. Then came the revolution of 1918 and the formation of the republic. Ebert, the modest soldier, was made Socialist President of the republic. Suddenly Meissner was named Secretary to the President. Sometimes he was called "Chief of the President's Bureau."

SMOOTHED DIFFICULTIES FOR FIRST PRESIDENT

He proved invaluable to Ebert. They became fast friends. As President Ebert had a lot of powers some of which he did not suspect. Meissner was right there at his elbow to coach him. He was an expert on every aspect, every syllable of the Weimar republican constitution. He had written books about it. When parliamentary difficulties between the rival parties threatened to gum up the free flow of activities, Meissner would dive down into the constitution and cite paragraph so and so, sub-section so and so which gave Ebert the right to cut the Gordian knot. Ebert came more and more to lean on Meissner. All the more so that the latter never asked anything for himself. He was content to be simply the Secretary to the President. If there was any limelight, Ebert must enjoy it. Meissner would remain in his office, busy with his papers.

HINDENBURG FINDS HIM INDISPENSABLE

Then Ebert died and Marshal Hindenburg was elected President. Meisner volunteered to stay on temporarily until the new president could select somebody perhaps more to his liking. But soon the old Marshal, like Ebert, found Meissner indispensable. He served the old soldier in two ways. Sometimes he pointed out to him fatal flaws in laws presented to him for his signature. Hindenburg bungled them back to the Reichstag for revision. But sometimes, even when the laws were quite in order, their content was distasteful to a man of the old soldier's antecedents and upbringing. Then Meissner sat down and proved to him that his signature was for the good of Germany. The papers were always signed.

When Adolf Hitler came to power as Chancellor and swept hundreds out of office, people who had heard Meissner's name, wondered what his fate would be. To their surprise, Meissner stuck where he was. There were two potent reasons for this. One was named Hindenburg and the other was named Hitler. The president felt he could not do without his faithful man of confidence. What the public did not know was that Meissner had played a large, if secret part, in Hitler's coming to power.

HELPED QUIETLY TO BRING HITLER TO POWER

The little Austrian, who had been a corporal in the German army, was about the last man the giant old Marshal envisioned as being Chancellor of his beloved Reich. But Meissner persuaded the President that the only cure for Germany's ills was to name the Nazi chief. He took part with Hindenburg's son and aide-de-camp in the fateful meetings which decided the skills should be put successfully under Chancellor Ebert. Von Papen and Von Schleicher. Hitler remembers. Hitler is grateful. And when everybody else, who had ever stood by Hitler, was eagerly grabbing for high places, the modest Meissner only asked to retain his modest job. To-day at fifty-four he still has his hands on many of the levers of power.

Americans are said to purchase $30,000,000 worth of fraudulent stocks each week.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

Strangers to Australia may hear what sounds like the braying of a jackass, in the woods. Investigation, however, will disclose a sassy-looking, colorful bird, on the order of the kingfisher but much larger.

It is the kookaburra, native to Australia, one of the brightest and most mischievous birds living. It is known as the "laughing jackass," because of its braying note, and as the "settler's clock," because it utters its peculiar cry regularly at dawn and at dusk. It eats insects, snakes and small mammals, killing the larger prey by flying high with its victim in its beak and dropping it to destruction.

From this habit, the bird is said to have acquired the mischievous 1913, and later on the same value stamp of 1932.

Progress in Treating Diseases Told Hospitals' Convention Here

Program being made in the treatment of mental diseases was outlined by Dr. Arthur L. Crease, general superintendent of mental hospitals and provincial psychiatrist, in an address during the afternoon session of the eighteenth annual convention of the British Columbia Hospitals' Association yesterday.

New Government Is Doing Well

Achievements at Ottawa So Far Show Canada Getting Action, Says Speaker

In outlining achievements of the Mackenzie King government since it took office, C. J. McDowell, who ran as Liberal candidate in the Federal election, told Ward Four Liberal Association yesterday evening that Canada could now feel it had an administration that was doing something for the country.

Among some of the matters he touched were preparations for the provincial conference, plans for the unemployment council, transfer of relief camps from the national defence to the labor department, and, most important, the reciprocal trade pact with the United States.

If this treaty went through as the press had outlined, it would make a big reduction in the unemployment lists of the British Columbia coastal area, he said, by increasing the markets for lumber and fish.

Mr. McDowell also discussed organization matters, stressing the need for continued work by party supporters.

BASKETBALL RENT IS CUT

School Board Reduces Charges For Use of High School Gymnasium

The city school board yesterday evening knocked down its charges for the rental of the High School gym for basketball interests, following the appeals put forward by Alderman James Adam and J. V. Johnson, representing the Victoria and District Basketball League respectively.

In place of the charges of $5 for practice nights, $10 for league games and $20 for exhibition fixtures, the board decided to let the basketball association have free practice use of the gym on regular night school evenings, Mondays and Thursdays, and set a fixed charge of $10 a night for both league and exhibition attractions.

On behalf of Victoria basketball, Alderman James Adam spoke of the benefits of encouraging basketball. He referred to its character-building qualities and the development of good sportsmanship encouraged by the game.

NEED EVERY DOLLAR
He asked that the Dominions be allowed to practice two nights a week free of charge and referred to the local team's hopes of going to Berlin, before the boys needed every dollar they could secure.

Alderman Adam closed by reiterating his plea the Dominions be given the same privileges they were accorded in previous years when they were allowed free practice facilities.

J. V. Johnson, on behalf of the league, stated the rental costs paid last year to the board for the gym amounted to $560. The present season he said, at the end of last year the league finished with a deficit of $60. At the present rate they would have a deficit of $250, he said, declaring he believed the rate-payers of Victoria would not object to a lower rental. He suggested a charge of $7.50 for league games and $10 for exhibitions.

COSTS TO BOARD
Trustee Charles Bishop referred to the costs of laying a new floor in the high school gym last year. Mr. Johnson stated the year and tear caused by the league teams was not the sole cause of the deterioration of the floor.

After an explanation of charges, W. F. C. Pope, secretary of the board, outlined the costs, stating the league paid the city school board $10, of which $2.50 went to the janitor.

P. E. George, chairman of the building and grounds committee, moved acceptance of the basketballers' terms, with the proviso that they would look after the building to the best of their ability and make provision for damages.

His motion was seconded by Trustee Bishop.

Trustee K. Ferguson moved an amendment that all teams in the league be allowed to practice free of charge.

Trustee T. B. Monk seconded the amendment and Trustee Mrs. D. L. MacLennan asked if that was practical.

SCHEME IMPRACTICAL
Alderman Adam declared it would be impossible to let fifty teams practice free of charge.

Mr. Johnson stated the league teams secured two or three games a week.

while the Dominions secured exhibition games only occasionally.

Trustee George stated he believed the Dominions should be given special privileges in view of their Olympic aspirations.

Trustee Ferguson rose again to state the league officials were not of one mind on the question. Many school boys and should enjoy the facilities of the school for athletic development, he contended.

Trustee George suggested the practice nights, Mondays and Thursdays, be turned over to the basketball league for allocation.

Trustee Ferguson withdrew his amendment and Trustee George's revamped motion was put to the meeting and passed.

Thanks of the organization they represented were conveyed to the board by Alderman Adam and Mr. Johnson.

PINE TREE ON MILLSTREAM ROAD
To the Editor:—The late W. A. Lorimer, saw this specimen and made great efforts to have it preserved. After his death I brought the matter to the attention of Mrs. McVicker and I am glad to see that she has not been idle but has succeeded, through the co-operation of W. W. Bell, district engineer, and A. E. Wale, in having the tree properly protected and guarded.

RADIO LICENSE FEE

To the Editor:—In the Observation column of The Colonist of November 8 I read what J. D. stated: "It is understood at Ottawa that the new Liberal Government with Premier Mackenzie King in the driver's seat, is going to abolish the $2 radio license fee."

Will this be good news? Well, all I can say is—ask the public.

This subject was brought up by Ward 2 Liberals several months before the election. To my mind the Liberal candidate for Victoria would have been a successful candidate, possibly, if he had had the abolishing of the radio license in his programme.

I have often wondered why the person who could afford an expensive radio should not have had to pay a larger license than the person who could only afford a cheaper radio or, in many cases, a second-hand one.

Will the abolishing of this fee help the sale of radios? I think it is possible in some cases, especially among people who object to being taxed for what some consider free air.

Here is luck to the King Government, especially if they abolish unfair taxation in other directions.

FRANCE-CANADA

To the Editor:—For many years there has been a small but select library of French books in Victoria, which is accessible to students and others on the payment of a small fee.

The above is only one of the activities of the long-established Victoria Comite de Franco-Canada. There are possibly some newly-arrived residents in Victoria who are interested in keeping up their knowledge of French.

The secretary is Mr. O. H. Gardiner, 1275 Hampshire Road, and the treasurer is Mr. H. S. Henderson of the Victoria Book and Stationery Company, 1002 Government Street, both of whom will give information as to joining etc.

In the past the branch has received distinguished French men and women who have passed through Victoria on their way to the French flag.

On every Armistice Day the French flag is carried at the Cenotaph ceremony and a wreath inscribed "A nos Soldats Français qui tombèrent pour la Patrie" laid at the base of the Cenotaph.

On behalf of the Victoria branch, F. V. LONGSTAFF, President, Victoria Comite Franco-Canada, November 12.

SOCIAL CREDITS

To the Editor:—The social credit people argue that banks in lending money are enjoying a private monopoly of a public asset, i.e. the credit of the country. I am not a specialist in banking, accounting, theology, engineering, social credit or evangelism, but it seems to me that application of horse sense to the question which is to-day so much in the eye of the public and of your correspondents will show the social credit people to be wrong.

The Douglasites appear to claim that my cash and that of all other people who have built up a bank account become in some mysterious way a national asset which belongs to the community. With that I vehemently disagree.

Owners of individual parcels of land have the only rights on the properties. They have, of course, the important right of leasing their own's to a public body. But, except for non-payment of just debts, including taxes, no one on this earth has the right to take their property away from them, or to claim that the community should be the owner.

This condition is also true of bank deposits. My bank account, such as it is, is my own. I acquired it through the sweat of my brow. It is mine. Like my forty-foot lot, it is not the public's like High Park. I lease my cash to the chartered bank. They pay me rental at a low rate because they agree to give me possession on a moment's notice on any business day. In return for paying me rent for my money, the banks have the privilege of investing it in loans or otherwise. I leave the character of the bank's investment to the bank's discretion, because I have confidence in it.

If I lost confidence in the bank, I would withdraw my money and deposit it elsewhere. The banks dispense the money of 4,000,000 other depositors like myself. They do not administer public assets, they administer assets belonging to 4,000,000 members of the public. To "nationalize" credit arising from bank deposits would be akin to confiscation of the deposits of these 4,000,000 depositors.

TRUE AND FALSE PROPHECY

To the Editor:—The religious daters, as to coming events, have evidently not yet learned the lesson, for they persist in spite of all their telling, among other things, the exact time of our Lord's return, of which Christ Himself said: "Ye know neither the day nor the hour."

These religious prognosticators cause all believers in the Lord's coming "at such an hour as ye think not" to be made the laughingstock of the un-riders into the who mockingly ask them: "Where is the promise of His coming?"

Nevertheless, this as yet unfulfilled, but soon to be fulfilled, prophecy, is clearly stated more than 300 times in the New Testament alone. Believers in prophecy are often accused of taking certain selected passages of Scriptures and piecing them together to fit in with events. Prophecy revelations must be sought for as a man seeks for gold or rubies, "sought out of all them that have pleasure therein," and when found what if they are pieced together and, as in the case of the Lord's first coming to earth, they are in the Old Testament and the promised One must be born at Bethlehem; of the seed of Abraham and David, yet born of a virgin, perfect in character, wonderful in miracles, acclaimed of multitudes as He rides into the city of the great king; a teacher's friend, crucified, buried, raised from the dead, ascended up on high, and coming back again.

These predictions, selected from different authors who wrote during a period of a thousand years, foretold Christ with minute detail and precision of One who was born about 500 years after the last writer died.

And we are spoken of contemptuously because we believe that fulfilled prophecy is the guarantee of unfulfilled prophecy. Our wonder is that men of intelligence can shut their eyes and ears to the voice of prophecy which cries day and night like the voice of one crying in the wilderness.

Neither the acutest intellect nor the most propitious chance could have invented the Scriptures with a line here and a sentence there which, when linked together, would foretell the life and work of the only perfect character in all history, the only Man who ever offered to bear in His own body the sin of the world and proved He had done so to the Divine satisfaction by rising from the dead and ascending up where He was before.

"Whoso therefore shall be ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of Man be ashamed when He cometh in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."

As intimation of the surest proof of the value of that which is limited, so do man-made prophecies testify to the reality of Bible prophecies, and this should be an incentive to one and all to "search the Scriptures—for they testify of me," says the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

DICKENS

To the Editor:—On behalf of the Dickens Fellowship, Victoria Branch, I wish to dispute several statements made by Mr. Bruce Hutchison in his "Local Echo" column for November 12, re-lack of interest in Charles Dickens.

Apparently Mr. Hutchison's knowledge of Dickens is limited to screen portrayals of his work and articles in Russian magazines, or he would know that the Dickens clubs and Fellowships in every important town and city throughout the Dominion, as well as in America, New Zealand and Australia; all English-speaking countries. Each branch is affiliated with the London Dickens Fellowship, headquarters in Dickens House, London, and all are actively engaged in keeping green the memory of Charles Dickens.

I am surprised to think Mr. Hutchison, as a writer for your worthy paper, does not read it more thoroughly. Were he to do so, he surely must notice the accounts of meetings held by our local branch, which, although a comparatively small organization, does, nevertheless, function, and generally manages to show Charles Dickens is represented in Victoria.

Russia has not "just discovered" Dickens; nor is it they are producing "Pickwick Papers" on the stage. This year marks the centenary of that gentleman's introduction to the reading public, and Dickens Fellowships all over the world have been celebrating the event. Russia is only in accord with the rest of the Dickens-loving public by enacting "Pickwick Papers." Hollywood, too, is commemorating the centenary of that book by filming it this year.

Mr. Hutchison might be interested to learn the advent of Dickens in celluloid in America is mainly due to the immense proportion of English-speaking people in that country devoted to reading and study of his books. Distinction for having some of the largest and most active Fellowship bodies goes to our American cousins.

There are many loyal Dickensians left, apart from those connected with Dickens's organizations; a fact I hope Mr. Hutchison will discover for himself when his scathing remarks are read by them.

Most certainly Charles Dickens still lives in the hearts of the English-speaking peoples, and in the hearts of hard-bitten politicians, too, as Mr. Hutchison should know, for he covers the sessions here, and the Speaker of the House quoted Dickens most admirably there last year.

JOAN B. KENNEDY,
Honorary Secretary Dickens Fellowship, Victoria Branch, November 13.

FOUR BIDS FOR NEW U.S. LINERS

New York, Nov. 14.—Four bids on a new passenger vessel for the United States Lines, to gross about 28,000 tons, were received yesterday at the office of Gibbs & Cox, engineers, acting for the company which operates the liners Washington and Manhattan in Atlantic service.

The bids were not made public. The engineering firm said the new ship would exceed in tonnage by approximately 4,000 tons the Manhattan and the Washington.

Surprise Selections On Eastern All-star Football Squad

THE SPORTS MIRROR

DURING THE season which closed down a few weeks ago Pacific Coast baseball writers described Joe Di Maggio as the finest ball player ever developed in the Coast League.

"Offhand, I would say that there is only one finer ball player alive, and his name is Charley Oehringer," says Tommy Laird, sports editor of The San Francisco News.

"Di Maggio is likely to kill an opposing infielder at any time," asserts Gene Coughlin of The Los Angeles Post-Record.

"You've seldom seen a more accomplished flycatcher," reports Cliff Harrison of The Seattle Star.

"Di Maggio plays ball with grim intensity," asserts Billy Stepp of The Portland News-Telegram.

With advance notices like that, Di Maggio, who reports to the St. Petersburg camp of the New York Yankees next spring, has a lot to live up to. The Pacific Coast League has turned out some pretty good ones, Ivy Olson, Roger Peckinpaugh, Charley Hoyle, Joe Mauer, Willie Kamm, Earl Averill, Gus Suhr, Tony Lazzeri, Chic Gandil, Swede Risberg and Claude Williams, to mention a few.

Di Maggio, who plays right field, is a right-hand hitter, standing six feet one and weighing 195 pounds. There is tremendous power in his compact swing. He takes a fairly tight grip with his strong hands. He stands firmly in the box, and his batting stride is short. He swats all kinds of pitching. He was the hardest of all coast leaguers to fool, and murdered a change of pace.

Di Maggio is so serious that they call him Dead Pan Joe. He is pictured as a ball player without nerves. He likes to play ball.

Di Maggio hits the ball where it is pitched, and socks it to all fields. He hit around 400 in 1935.

The Yankee recruit covers quite a lot of ground. He is not exactly a gambler, but he is not slow either. He is a fast runner.

Di Maggio, who is twenty-one, injured a knee a year ago and again during the last season, but his getting in practically every game played by the San Francisco Seals is something in the way of proof that the joint is not of the tricky variety.

The Yankees paid plenty for Di Maggio in 1934, and left him on the coast for seasoning.

The Yankees certainly can use Di Maggio, rounding out their Italian triumvirate of Crosetti, Lazzeri and Di Maggio.

A couple of other San Francisco kids, Lazzeri and Mark Koenig, restored the breath of life to the Yankees in 1935.

Perhaps this one will rid Joe McCarthy and his men of their second place complex.

Burroughs and Watts, the famous billiard firm, is celebrating its centenary with a series of billiard matches on a table of its own make which is ninety-nine years old. Orchestras, leaders, actors, speedway aces, Surrey cricketers and old-time billiard champions are to compete. The old table looks remarkably well preserved for its age, a handsome piece of furniture made in 1836. The fourth generation of the Burroughs family is still in the business. The frame and wooden bed of the table are in their original form, the cushions are stuffed with lint, the bed is formed of seventy-two pieces of oak, mortised, tenoned and doweled. The craftsmen, their work finished, must have looked at it with pride and the players with awe. Billions of points must have been scored on the table.

The highest run ever made at the game was 490,135 by Tom Reece in 1907, the fastest 1,011 by Walter Lindrum in thirty-three seconds, and 100 points in fifty seconds. The increased pace of the game can be judged from the fact that W. J. Peal's record in 1884 was 1,000 in forty-four minutes, a year before the birth of the billiards association.

One difference the modern billiard table has brought about is that there is no penalizing now for a player pushing the table when his opponent is playing a stroke. The ancient billiard laws fined you for that. The modern billiard table weighs at least a ton and a half.

Team Dominated By Toronto and Montreal Stars

Fill Nine of Twelve Berths on Annual Interprovincial Union Selection

Huck Welch Lone Hamilton Player

By ELMER DULMAGE

Toronto, Nov. 14.—All-star heads bobbed up today from some of the most unexpected spots as the Canadian Press announced its third annual Interprovincial Union football all-stars. The fading Argonauts of Toronto and Montreal's fighting, but entirely unsuccessful, Wheelers were placed in command.

Coaches and sports writers picked the team that has the experience, speed and all-around capabilities to take rank with any selected outfit in the league's history. It has three United States players behind the line and one in the centre on a great forward wall.

Here is the team:
Flying wing—Ted Morris, Argonauts.
Half—Huck Welch, Hamilton.
Half—Abe Elowitz, Ottawa.
Half—Tommy Ryan, Montreal.
Quarter—Andy Mullin, Argonauts.
Snap—Buddy Meiers, Ottawa.
Inside—George Pigeon, Montreal.
Inside—Jim Palmer, Argonauts.
Middle—Tommy Burns, Argonauts.
Middle—Pete Jotkus, Montreal.
Outside—Wes Cutler, Argonauts.
Outside—Len Hutton, Montreal.

A few years ago this array would almost automatically have become the year's all-eastern team. This is not the case any more since the Intercollegiate Union has developed some of the greatest performers of 1935, and Sarnia Imperials and Balm Beach of the Ontario Union will respond quickly to the roll call.

WELCH LONE TIGER

But no better. Big Four team has ever been honored after the season's work is nearly done. Hamilton Tigers, now smothering their way toward the title, played so unimpressively in the early campaign that only the great Welch, leader of this dynamic surge, gained recognition.

Injuries in mid-season cost Frank Turville and little Seymour Wilson every selection chance. Mullin, a veteran, Brian Timmis, still an outstanding middle, went down under an avalanche of votes for Pete Jotkus and Tommy Burns.

The American chosen are Elowitz from Michigan State; Ryan from Manhattan University; Mullin, of the University of Syracuse, and Meiers from Michigan State.

Elowitz, Ottawa's front man in everything the Rough Riders do, is a fine left-footed punter and place-kicker, a good forward passer, and a runner, plunger and defensive player. Mullin helped Argos win the Canadian championship in 1933.

Ryan is the sparkplug of the Montreal Wheelers.

In winning the flying wing berth, Morris obtained a total of fourteen votes out of a possible seventeen. Every selector voted for Elowitz, sixteen ballots were cast for Welch and twelve for Ryan.

Ryan won the secondary half position, selectors having been asked to specify one backfielder as a defence player, plunger and defensive player. Ryan got four votes for this job, four for the running half position and another four for quarter. The vote for quarter left Mullin in front with eight.

KEEN FIGHT

The real battle was for snap, between Meiers and the chunky centre of the Tiger tanks, Jerry Brock, late of Cornell University. Meiers, playing his second season with Rough Riders, won out with the nine votes to seven for Brock, whose work during Hamilton's sensational late rally has been outstanding.

There was no struggle at all in deciding the wingline makeup. The inside, Pigeon and Palmer were all-eastern choices in 1934. Jotkus, a substitute plunger, and Burns, one of the country's most accurate place-kickers, had no opposition at middle. The fleet Len Hutton is a new comer to football all-starhood, but he has been a famous athlete for years. In 1930 he won the broad jump for Canada at the British Empire Games. He went in the 1932 Olympic Games. At football he is a sure tackler and forward pass receiver.

All-eastern ace last year, Wes Cutler, Argos obtained fourteen out of a possible seventeen votes.

Weekly Shows Are Postponed

Due to most of the youngsters who perform for the Mount Stephen Athletic Club being pre-occupied at the present time with their Christmas examinations, Louie Callan, popular mat-maker and referee of the club, to-day made the announcement that the weekly boxing and wrestling shows staged at the Tillamook gym have been postponed until after Christmas.

FRASER HEADS BOWLING CLUB

Named President of the Victoria West Brotherhood Club at Annual Meeting

At the annual meeting held recently in the clubrooms, N. S. Fraser was elected president of the Victoria West Brotherhood Lawn Bowling Club. C. E. Rose was chosen as vice-president, and Major A. A. Warden was named second vice-president. The position of secretary was voted to W. Wallace, and A. R. Hopper was elected as treasurer.

Following the election of officers, reports were tendered. It was shown that the club had enjoyed one of its most successful years. Winners of all the events played throughout the summer were awarded prizes. The women's championship prize for 1935 was won by Mrs. W. Flude and D. Campbell took the men's.

The executive committee will be comprised of the officers along with J. Davies, H. Baker, N. R. Hill, J. G. Cromack and D. Templeton. Delegates to the Greater Victoria Association are N. S. Fraser, C. E. Rose, A. A. Warden, J. Davies and W. Wallace. J. G. Cromack will be chairman of the games committee, which will have J. Davies, H. Baker, A. A. Warden and W. Wallace on it. D. Campbell will be the greens' warden for the season.

LES PATRICK IS OUTFOXED

New York Manager Beaten to Option on Montreal Amateur By Sylvio Mantha

Montreal, Nov. 14.—Rarely does a rival manager beat Lester Patrick, hockey's grey fox, to the draw, but it happened here yesterday.

Patrick, astute manager of New York Rangers of the National Hockey League, liked the work of Buddy O'Connor, centre with Royals of the Montreal senior group.

So did Sylvio Mantha, playing manager of Montreal Canadiens, and when Patrick attempted at league headquarters to place O'Connor's name on his reserve list he found Mantha had beaten him to it by twenty minutes.

O'Connor, just up from junior company here, has given no indication as yet that he will listen to the tinle of money when it is offered him by Canadians. The placing of his name on the reserve list means that no other National League club can approach the player unless Canadians waive their rights.

Shamrocks Cage Squad in Victory

With three members of the team, Martin, Perry and Belton, chalking up all the points, Shamrocks, juvenile cage squad, yesterday evening posed out the Terriers 24 to 29 in a Juvenile Basketball League fixture at the Lake Hill gym.

J. G. Baker refereed. Teams and scores follow:
Shamrocks—Martin 7, F. Ahern, D. Perry, J. H. Ahern, Fraser, Edmonds, Gowden, Scroggs, Phlarity, and Belton 9.

Terriers—Hope 6, Warren 4, Smith, Blanco 3, Pulver, Meadmore 2, Bell, Newman, Main and Kitching.

KEY WEST, Florida, IS CLOSER TO CUBA THAN TO THE MAINLAND OF THE UNITED STATES...

CARLO BORROMEO SOLD 2 ITALIAN CITIES FOR 10,000 OUNCES OF GOLD, AND GAVE IT ALL TO THE POOR IN A SINGLE DAY...

Key West, Florida, is 125 miles off the mainland of the state, joined to it, however, by a railroad line that spans the distance on pilings connecting a series of islands that follow an arc shape southwest of the lower tip of the Atlantic Coast. Cuba lies less than 100 miles away from Key West across open water.

Poems that once laid in manuscript form eight years in the grave of his wife, now constitute part of the published works of Dante Gabriel Rossetti, English poet and painter.

Rossetti married in 1860 at the age of thirty-two. Two years later his wife died, and in his grief the poet-painter put all his unpublished works in his wife's coffin and had them buried with her. For eight years the manuscripts remained in his wife's grave. Then, at the instance of friends, he consented to have the poems exhumed and published. These poems, together with a book of ballads and sonnets, and some translations of Italian poets, constitute his entire poetic works. Rossetti is best remembered as one of the more prominent leaders in the movement to bring painting back to the simplicity that characterized it in the Middle Ages.

The "Share-the-Wealth" idea was practiced on an ancient plan by Cal Borromeo, 16th century political boss in Italy. He sold two cities, Oris and Francavilla, for cash—collected 40,000 ounces of gold and scattered it among the poor in a single day.

SAANICH CAGE SQUAD IN WIN

Come From Behind to Defeat Hoyle-Brown 36 to 33 in Winter Cup Knockout

Coming from behind five minutes before the end of the encounter, West Saanich Mercantiles, smooth-working Senior B quintette, yesterday evening fought their way through to capture the initial fixture in the Winter Cup knockout series, and also take over top berth in the Senior B loop when they defeated Hoyle-Brown 36 to 33.

The match was the feature on the Victoria and district Basketball League's programme staged at the High School gym.

Battling in an Intermediate A fixture, Chinese Students managed to nose out the Trade A's 33 to 31 in the second encounter on the evening's programme, while Walter Yeaman's Units secured their initial victory of the season when they snuffed under the Burnettes 64 to 42 in a women's cage match in the opener.

The score at the breather in the West Saanich-Hoyle-Brown match stood 20 to 11 for Hoyle-Brown. At the start of the second half West Saanich pressed heavily and after twelve minutes a fine basket by Mitchell tied the score 20 to 26. Robertson, speedy Hoyle-Brown cager, broke the deadlock a minute later when he made a free shot count. Soon after the suburban squad dropped in three baskets in rapid succession and gained a lead which they held to the end of the match. The fixture was fast throughout.

Another speedy game on the evening's programme resulted when the Chinese Students and Trade A's met. The score at the interval stood 16 to 10 for the Trade A's. In the second half the Students pulled up within three points five times before tying the match 25 to 29. Kent boosted the Trade A's into the lead toward the end of the match when he dropped in a long-range basket to make the score stand 31 to 29. With but five seconds to go Chan dropped in two counters for the Chinese Students to give them a two-point majority at the final gong.

SCHOOL GALA ENTRY SWELLS

Late local entries for the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club's annual school gala at the Crystal Garden on Saturday night had raised the total to 250. George Warren Jr., stated to-day. Sir James Douglas has entered a team to defend its laurels, he stated. Arrangements are being made to secure an exhibition by Chuck Hills, well-known Vancouver swimmer, of a new surf board capable of attaining outstanding speeds, during the gala.

A wide-open scoring game was witnessed in the women's fixture. The score at the half stood 30 to 27 for the eventual winners. High scorers were R. Weeks with 16, I. Crawford, 17 and E. Elston, 18, for the Units, and D. Beer led all the scorers when she garnered 25 for Burnettes.

Alan Le Marquand refereed and the teams and individual scores follow:

OPINION IN EAST SPLIT

Toronto Sports Writers Comment on Demands of Western Canada Gridders

Toronto, Nov. 14.—Toronto sports editors were divided yesterday as to whether western Canada should be shown more consideration in the matter of play-offs by the Canadian Rugby Union. This week western football heads announced they would ask to have the Dominion final played earlier and have some of the titular games played in the west.

Edwin Allan of The Mail and Empire said such demands and threats of withdrawing from the C.R.U. were laughable when "one considers the few teams in the west as compared to the east, also the short season in the west. Why several teams in the east should curtail their season so that one western team can be accommodated with a single game for a title is a question that even the gib westerners will find hard to answer satisfactory to themselves."

Mike Rodden of The Globe said: "Eastern union officials won't be even slightly concerned about these two proposals. In other words they are not interested. Schedules will go on as in the past and if the champions of the west do not wish to play for the Grey Cup, that is their own business."

Pointing to the tendency of rugby in the west to tally with nearby United States cities, J. F. Fitzgerald of The Evening Telegram wrote: "If that stretch of the Dominion from Winnipeg to Vancouver is to be saved to Canadian football, much more consideration must be accorded them by their eastern fellow-members of the C.R.U."

He said the west had a real grievance, and the fact that the west is a member of the C.R.U. had been ignored all along the line.

Weakened Rangers To Tackle Toronto

Cochrane May Succeed Navin

Detroit, Nov. 14.—The Detroit Free Press predicted that Gordon S. (Mickey) Cochrane, manager of the world champion Tigers, may succeed Frank J. Navin as president of the club, or be selected to represent the owners.

"As secretary and treasurer of the club, Mr. Navin's nephew, Charles F. Navin, outranks Mickey both in position and experience, but there is some doubt whether he would consent to lead the club. His health has not been of the best and he might not consent to jeopardize it by taking upon himself all the worries of a big league baseball concern," the newspaper said.

JAMBOREE TO BE STAGED

Anglers' Body Will Hold Second Annual Affair Next Thursday

Plans for the second annual monster jamboree to be sponsored by the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association are now complete. At a meeting of the executive held yesterday evening it was decided to stage the affair on Thursday, November 21 in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

The evening will be spent in the form of a Klondike Night, which will include games of roulette, roulette, chuck-a-luck, horse racing and many other games of the days of '98. Vaudeville acts will also be staged, with performers dressed like those of the gay nineties taking part. The latter part of the evening will be spent in dancing.

Members of the organization were prompted to stage this second annual event, following the great success of last year's affair, at which more than five hundred members and their friends were present.

Officials predict an even better turnout for this year's event. It is an invitation affair restricted to members who will be allowed to bring a friend.

MILLER WINS BY DECISION

World Featherweight Champ Takes Unpopular Call Over Roger Bernard

Toronto, Nov. 14.—Freddie Miller, New York, world featherweight champion, won a ten-round decision over Roger Bernard, Flint, Mich., in a non-title bout yesterday evening. Both weighed in at 130½ pounds.

The decision was unpopular with the fans, who cheered the Flint boy as he forced the fighting most of the way and, although hit often, took most of Miller's punches on his gloves or shoulders. Using a peculiar crouch and keeping both hands close to his body, Bernard proved hard to hit squarely.

In the ninth round the champion gained the edge that gave him victory, scoring with several terrific lefts to the body. But the Flint fighter never stepped back and gave Miller no chance to land a knock-out blow.

After the fans voiced their disapproval of the first exhibition round fought by Joe Louis, Detroit's great negro heavyweight, the Brown Bomber opened up on his other three sparring partners, and smashed them about the ring in a terrific onslaught. Paul Cavalier was the lucky first opponent, with Stanley Ketchell, Mickey McAvoy and Andy Wallies coming in for the punning.

To Aid Juveniles With Whist Drive

A whist drive, to assist the local juvenile football teams, will be held at the Sons of England Hall, 1216 Broad Street, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. Many fine prizes are being offered.

Lester Patrick's Club Will Be Without Murdoch and Starr For Opening Game at New York; Former Will Step Onto Ice to Save Great Endurance Record

Parading before New Yorkers for the first time this season, Lester Patrick's Rangers move against Toronto Maple Leafs tonight with a weakened defence but with forward lines that have shown they can do much to relieve the pressure.

The New Yorkers open the Madison Square Garden hockey season without Earl Seibert, most persistent of hold-outs, and Harold Starr, injured in training. It is probable they also will lack all but an appearance by Murray Murdoch, the game's iron man.

Murdoch, who has played nine seasons in the National League without missing a game, suffered a chest injury in the Canadian clash at Montreal Tuesday and likely will play only a few minutes to keep up his record. There is no hope of Starr or Seibert, who is still at home in Kitchener, Ont., even dressing.

Always optimistic, Patrick listened to-day to reports of the way Toronto's defence behaved against Americans last Saturday and decided his riddled rearward would do. He heard King Clancy isn't in the best of shape and remembered it is almost axiomatic that as the King goes so go the Leafs.

Mike Karakas, American Association goalie who made good in his first big league start by holding Americans to one goal, will kick them out for Chicago again "night when Hawks meet Detroit." The Kings is the only other game scheduled. Lester, Chabot, league's leading goalie last season, still hobbled about on crutches with a training injury.

PHILADELPHIA WINS HOCKEY

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—Philadelphia Ramblers, newly-formed Canadian-American Hockey League team, opened their home season yesterday evening by outskating New Haven Eagles for a 3 to 2 victory.

Goals by Neil Colville and Bobby Kirk in the second period, and a second by Kirk in the closing session made up the Ramblers' score.

New Haven staged a closing period rally, with Normie Himes and Joe McGoldrick scoring in the last five minutes.

Providence, R.I., Nov. 14.—Springfield's Indians were held to a 2 to 2 tie yesterday evening by Rhode Island Reds in the opening game of the Canadian-American League hockey season.

In this case the Indians were held to a 2 to 2 tie by the Reds. The game was a close one, with the Indians leading for most of the first period, and the other on a pass from Leo Gaudreault and the other on a pass from Leo Blake, a new Providence player.

OAK BAY WHITES BEAT SHAWNIGAN

The Oak Bay Wanderers rugby club's Whites defeated the first team of the Shawnigan Lake School on Monday at Shawnigan, 20 to 6. The match was played in a steady drizzle and considering the conditions a good exhibition was displayed to the large crowd.

Shawnigan's lighter pack dominated both the loose and tight scrums and their precision and consistency in handling the ball was a treat to watch. The Wanderers scored twice in the first half, Murdoch going over after Murray had made a nice opening and Shepherd scoring between the posts after a power play by the Whites' backfield. Briggs failed to convert.

The half-time whistle found the Oak Bay team trying desperately to add to the score but good tackling held them out.

On the resumption of play the Whites' forwards staged some fast dribbling rushes which resulted in scores by Grogan Gornall and "Moore" Yates in quick succession. Pangman converted one with a beautiful kick from near the touch-line. A three-run following the kick-off resulted in Pangman diving over a would-be tackler's head for a try to complete the scoring.

Captain Levine refereed.

NEWS IN BRIEF

F. P. Burden, former Agent-General in London for British Columbia, came over from Vancouver yesterday and is registered at the Empress Hotel.

Arthur H. Kerr was to-day elected a member of the Victoria Rotary Club by ballot of the club at its luncheon at the Empress Hotel.

H. G. Perry, M.P.P. for Fort George and Speaker of the B.C. Legislature, is meeting members of the government here to-day. He is at the Empress Hotel.

A meeting in the C.C.F. Hall, Fort Street, this evening will be addressed by Rev. Robert Connell, C.C.P. leader in the Legislature, and V. E. Midgley, who will discuss experience as campaign manager for the party.

Assistance of city police in locating Allan A. MacLeod, formerly of eastern Canada, believed to be in British Columbia, has been requested by friends who have not heard from him for many years. His age is given as eighty-six.

John Lennox, arraigned in city police court to-day on two charges of breaking and entering and theft from the store of Merryfield and Dack, was given a remand until to-morrow before entering his plea on the request of J. B. Clearthurn, defence counsel.

Canvassers in the Chamber of Commerce membership drive and membership committee are invited to attend the meeting of directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when reports on the drive will be presented.

City police have been requested by lawyers acting for relatives to locate Miss Laura Mabel Sibbings, or Sibbons, who is believed to be somewhere in the Pacific Northwest. She was known to have resided in Vancouver in 1918 and Seattle in 1930. She is now about fifty-eight years old.

A. F. B. Church of Comox collapsed in the lobby of the Strathcona Hotel this morning and was rushed by ambulance to St. Joseph's Hospital. He arrived in Victoria with Mrs. Church yesterday. Mr. Church's condition was reported fair late this morning. He is under the care of Dr. F. Leader.

The Common Wealth Society will hold its monthly meeting at 2500 Douglas Street to-night at 8 o'clock. After a short business session a talk will be given by Mrs. E. Simmonds on "Straight From the Sheep's Back to You." Anyone interested in the organization is invited to attend.

Three new songs by Ernest G. Ferne and Doris Ferne are to be given their premiere this evening at the meeting of the Victoria Branch of the Authors' Association of Canada under President Eugene Perry at the Women's Institute, C.C.P. Hall, Fort Street. Mr. Ferne will sing his own songs.

Four senior girls will lead the young people's meeting to-night at the Salvation Army Citadel, Broad Street, commencing at 8 o'clock. The young men band and the singing company will furnish instrumental and vocal music. Friends of all ages are invited.

The Victoria West School Parent-Teacher Association will meet at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening in the auditorium of the school. Following a short business meeting, there will be a "Skidway Festival" and plenty of opportunity will be given visitors to prove their ability at bean bag, "Aly Sloper," darts and other games of skill. And finally, a Punch and Judy show will be given by an expert in the business.

The economic situation in the Cuban and Dominican republics and Puerto Rico has shown a decided improvement within the last year, Mr. McColl said to-day.
"Everything indicates," he continued, "that the buying power of these countries will soon be back to that of pre-depression times."
Cuba imports salted cod and herring from eastern Canada and Scandinavia, and Mr. McColl believes that British Columbia should be in line as a supplier of these commodities. He is leaving Victoria this afternoon for Nanaimo to investigate the fish industry and acquaint himself with the possibilities of the trade for export. Salted dried or smoked cod or herring, he believes, would find a market in his territory.

He is also looking into the pichard oil industry. In this connection Mr. McColl this morning interviewed Sidney S. Ruck, owner of the Shingle Bay Packing Company, Pender Island, and one of the best-known pichard reduction authorities on the coast.
Pichard oil, Mr. McColl said, is now being largely used as a substitute for lard oil, for cod liver oil and also in the tanning industry. Mr. McColl came over from Vancouver with Hugh Dalton, secretary of the British Columbia branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. He visited the office of T. J. Goodlake where he met trade representatives and talked over.

The meeting is of importance to the future of co-operative advertising in the northwest due to the fact that the On-to-Oregon Movement of Portland, which was admitted to membership last year, is undetermined as to whether it will continue.

Since the Oregon organization was admitted the Oregon State Highway Association has set up its own tourist promotion department and will spend a large sum of money out of gasoline tax revenue to advertise recreational features of the state.

A big proportion of this advertising will be placed in California newspapers and for this reason it is felt all the more important that the area north of Oregon should rearrange its advertising activities.

The Greater Vancouver Publicity Bureau will be represented by E. H. Adams, vice-president of the B.C. Electric Railway Company; Dr. G. H. Worthington, Brenton S. Brown and Charles A. Webster.

PAY-OFF DAY FOR JURYMEN

Criminal Assizes Here Cost State $2,000 Against Over $40,000 in Vancouver

This was pay-off day at the Court House for the forty-eight men who had served on the jury roll since the first of last week during the autumn criminal assize.

As Sheriff Goggin called the jury roll for the last time, just before noon, each of the jurors stepped forward to receive from $18 to $27 in cash, counted out from stacks of bills by Registrar George E. Mahon.

The pay was based on the number of days each juror served. The assize sittings, which covered ten days, cost a total of $2,000, outside of the costs of defence lawyers. Four prisoners were tried; three of them acquitted by the jury. The result of the fourth, in which John Pincos was charged with murder, was that the jury reduced it to manslaughter.

Thus Pincos was the only one who had to appear to-day for the assize sentence session.

A fifth case, that of defamatory libel against Jack Craddock, was withdrawn by Prosecutor Carew Martin to-day.

The autumn criminal assizes here were contrasted to-day with the sittings in Vancouver, which are also ending with sentence to-day. In Victoria the time required was only ten days against two full months in Vancouver.

The cost of the Vancouver assizes to the state has been over $40,000, against $2,000 here.

In Vancouver there were thirty-one convictions, against one here.

Some of the Vancouver jurors to-day are receiving cheques for upwards of $300 each.

Mr. Justice Murphy conducted the Vancouver sessions.

AUXILIARIES DO FINE WORK

Hospitals' Convention Speakers Praise Work of Women's Organizations.

Women's auxiliaries to hospitals do an invaluable service in creating a community spirit to wards the hospitals, speakers at this morning's session of the provincial hospitals' association convention in the Empress Hotel said.

The assembly this morning took the form of a round table conference with Dr. Malcolm T. MacEachern, associate director of the American College of Surgeons, and Dr. Harvey Agnew, secretary of the Canadian Hospitals' Council, leading the discussion.

While some hospitals were opposed to auxiliaries, Mr. MacEachern thought their community work was a splendid service. He referred to work carried on in Montreal where auxiliaries contributed so many hours a week to hospital work under the direction of the auxiliary.

These auxiliaries could materially assist under-staffed hospitals, he said, and often were able to supply special equipment to the hospitals.

J. H. McVety, secretary of Vancouver Hospital, spoke of the accomplishments of Indian and Japanese auxiliaries in B.C. who comprised the auxiliary there.

Women had been responsible for furnishing the hospital with pillows made from the down of wild ducks, he said.

"Every hospital in British Columbia should have an auxiliary."

One interesting question was whether the use of cellophane masks by nurses was practical. While these are not used in Victoria, Dr. Harvey Agnew stated they were used in St. John's, N.S., where the sanitarian superintendent was very enthusiastic about them and recommended their use in a report to the Canadian Hospital Council.

Mr. Agnew himself said they were satisfactory in the case of a doctor or nurse who did not wear spectacles, but if glasses were worn, as in his own case, cellophane would cloud them, he thought.

Other questions dealt with during the morning included discussions on the making of daily written reports by graduate nurses in small hospitals, the work of social service workers in hospitals of less than fifty beds, and cross-infection in hospitals caused by the nursing staffs.

OCCUPATIONAL WORK
Occupational and vocational work being carried on at Vancouver General Hospital was outlined by Mrs. A. H. Douglas, who had charge of this branch.

Mrs. Douglas could not stress too strongly the value of helping patients to help themselves. This type of work required in a large measure the self-respect of the patient, Mrs. Douglas said.

In thanking the speaker, President E. W. Neel referred to the value of work Mrs. Douglas was conducting.

SOPHIA ROSE McADAM
Rev. Dr. Clem Davies will officiate at funeral services for Mrs. Sophia Rose McAdam to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

WAS DICKENS OF AMERICA

Rev. E. F. Church Tells Round Table Club Fame of Mark Twain Still Growing

"Mark Twain was the Charles Dickens of America," Rev. E. F. Church told members of the Round Table Club last night when he addressed them on the life of the novelist and humorist, in Speedie's Cafe.

A century after his birth, the novelist's fame was still growing, and his literary style was being more widely appreciated. Although Mark Twain used a lot of local colloquialisms in his writings, said Mr. Church, yet there was much pure and beautiful English mixed with them.

Until the time he took up writing, Mark Twain had been a consistent failure in every job he took on, the speaker said. He had been, among other things, a steamboat pilot on the Mississippi, helper to a blacksmith, clerk in a drug store, an assistant in a grocery store, and a clerk in a bookshop.

Mark Twain did not like the job in the book store, he said in one of his books, because the number of customers who came in disturbed his reading.

The humorist served two weeks as a second lieutenant in the Confederate army in the Civil War, but did not like soldiering, and gave it up to go to Nevada, where he worked without pay as secretary to his brother, who in turn was secretary to the governor of the state.

It was after his failure in a gold mining venture that he received the offer of a post on the editorial staff of the Virginia City Territorial Enterprise. It was there that he found his vocation.

"The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" and "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" were the two most popular works of Twain, said Mr. Church.

TAX SYSTEM IS ATTACKED

Mayor Leeming and D. W. Reeve of Vancouver Point to Need For Changes

"When we have a common sense, economic system of taxation on property you will see progress in British Columbia that will astonish you," declared Mayor Leeming when addressing members of the Real Estate Board at their luncheon in Spencer's to-day. "The present system has got to be changed if we are going to survive. Property values have become utterly destroyed. I wouldn't think of buying a piece of property if there was anything else to buy. We must apply common sense to taxation."

Mr. Leeming said the assessment of Victoria property had shrunk from $89,000,000 in 1914 to around $19,000,000 at the present time. A point must be reached, he said, where the value of real estate will be stabilized. He said real estate was the biggest value in the province. He expressed the hope the government would not be too long in giving a report prepared on a new system of taxation. He urged members of the board to support the Victoria and the subject city councils in pressing the subject.

VANCOUVER SPEAKER

D. W. Reeve, a member of the Vancouver Real Estate Exchange, was a guest at the luncheon and amplified some of Mr. Leeming's remarks. He said the primary object of changing the system of taxation would be to stabilize values. Real estate at the present time, he said, bore too large a part of civic burdens. The revenue collected by municipalities from real estate must be reduced, Mr. Reeve declared. The system will mean increased taxation on improved properties. He said the tax burden would be in accordance with the ability to pay. Owners of office buildings, he said, would be allowed for vacant offices. The proposed system would distribute the burden more evenly.

Mr. Reeve said the system of financing municipalities in Canada and the United States was "crazy." He compared it to England's system. There a man was penalized if his taxes were more than three months overdue. Here a property holder was allowed four years. He referred to the system of forfeiting property for unpaid taxes as "out of date, unjust and brutal." If it could be done away with people would be very much happier, he said.

Frank Burton, president of the board, presided at the luncheon and thanked the mayor and Mr. Reeve for their talks.

Hospital Work Under Review

Dr. Harvey Agnew Tells Convention of Progress Made in Canada

While the programme of the Canadian hospitals during the last year has not been one of progress, said Dr. Harvey Agnew, secretary of the Canadian Hospitals' Council, while addressing a luncheon meeting at the B.C. Hospitals' convention in the Empress Hotel to-day.

The luncheon was staged for the delegates by the Sisters of St. Joseph's Hospital.

There was little to report in the way of physical development during the last year, Toronto had been the centre of activity, where the Women's and Sisters of St. John's Hospitals were being built.

LITTLE ON ECONOMY

Occupancy had been around 60 and 62 per cent, and there was a general reversion towards private and semi-private wards. Dr. Agnew noted fewer papers on economy at meetings, everything having been done in this regard.

The general public had to realize hospitals had been economized as far as possible if the standard of efficiency was to be maintained. There were many instances where equipment replacement was urgent but impossible.

These were also numerous instances, particularly on the prairies, where big salary reductions had been made. This tended to lower staff morale, he noted.

The outstanding development of the year was the third bi-annual session of the Canadian Hospital Council. Reports of these sessions would soon be mailed to all hospitals.

The British Columbia delegates had contributed much to the sessions, he said. Many subjects were covered, including, British preferential tariff, which affected purchases of surgical equipment, unemployment insurance, from which the council sought exemption of hospital staffs.

Dr. Agnew assured that steps towards state health insurance in British Columbia were being intently scrutinized by the remainder of the Dominion.

MANY SEEK JOBS ON LOAN WORK

In response to notice given yesterday to unemployed of Victoria that men were needed for the various projects to be undertaken immediately in the city's $100,000 loan programme, a steady line of applicants formed up at the city engineer's office to-day.

By noon eighty-three registrations had been taken and many more were listed this afternoon.

Warner Baxter At Playhouse

Popular Player Has Lead in
"Under the Pampas Moon"
Opening To-day

Responding to the demand of the public, Warner Baxter has created a screen role more romantic than his famous "Cisco Kid." The picture is "Under the Pampas Moon," now playing at the Playhouse Theatre.
In the picture, which B. G. DeSiva produced for Fox Films and which was directed by James Tinling, Baxter takes the part of a South American gaucho, a cowboy of the great plains of the Argentine Republic. A nomad, a descendant of the bandit crews which roamed the pampas and raided villages before the railroad and civilization settled the country, the gaucho is part-Spanish and part Indian, controlled now but not tamed. He is a roistering, hard-riding sentimental fellow, inseparable from his horse, quick to fight and quick to forgive, careless in his love-making but tender and chivalrous to the weaker sex.
Opposite Baxter is Ketti Gallian, the French star who scored so heavily in her first American appearance in
"Marie Galante."
Also being shown as the second feature is George M. Cohan in "Gambling," with Wynne Gibson.

CAPITOL THEATRE
"She Married Her Boss," Columbia
Picture's newest screen comedy romance, is being shown at the Capitol Theatre to-day, and is starring Claudette Colbert. It is acclaimed a logical successor to "It Happened One Night." In it Miss Colbert, winner of the Academy award for the best screen performance in 1934, again finds a role peculiarly suited to her magnificent talents.

Seen in her support are Melvyn Douglas, Michael Bartlett and a cast of screen notables. The screen story is by Sidney Buchman and directed by Gregory LaCava.

Shirley Temple At The Little Orpheum

Gary Cooper and Carole Lombard were in the midst of a thrilling love scene for Paramount's "Now and Forever," in which they are starred with Shirley Temple, and which comes to-day to the Little Orpheum Theatre.
Director Henry Hathaway was fairly holding his breath; the cameras were cranking and everything was going perfectly, when suddenly there was a resounding off-stage "crash!"
Cooper and Miss Lombard separated themselves with a start; Hathaway jumped as if he were shot, and they all looked around to see a large bottle lying on the floor, with a pool of water rapidly spreading over the set.

Wheeler, Woolsey Columbia Stars

Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey are seen in "The Nitwits," showing at the Columbia Theatre to-day.
The boys are now cast as cigar counter proprietors with sleuthing propensities. Woolsey invents a lie-detecting machine which shocks a confession out of the most stalwart liar. Wheeler writes songs with murder themes as an avocation.
An opportunity to put their fads to practical use comes when they attempt to solve a blackmailing plot which is a highlight of "The Nitwits." An extortionist operating as "The Black Widow" is terrorizing the city and has slain two men. Wheeler's sweetheart, played by ravishing Betty Grable, is accused when she is found with the murder weapon.
Also shown on the same programme are Joan Blondell and Glenda Farrell in "Traveling Saleslady."

Carole Lombard Will Star Here

That smart new picture, "Hands Across the Table," will open its Victoria engagement at the Dominion Theatre to-morrow.
This laugh-provoking, entertaining vehicle also gives the seductive, blond Carole Lombard an opportunity for her talents in a totally different role. In place of her customary gorgeously gowned sophisticated lady characterizations, the fetching Miss Lombard discloses an amusing "face for light comedy" in her portrayal as a poor, but attractive and ambitious manicurist, and she emerges as an avoc comedienne, delivering her lines with a delightfully sarcastic, infectious gaiety.
Fred MacMurray, as a penniless, young playboy, gives his most engaging and skillful performance of his short but promising screen career. This personable young actor reveals himself as a deft comedian, master of snappy patter. His lively utterances prove most of the hilarious moments in the film as he has a rare gift of enjoying his role for the pure fun of it.

Not once did Zu-tag pause until he came to a stop among the tree branches near the cannibal village. They could hear the sounds of life within the palisades and Olga caught glimpses of the hideous savages.

From them she had so recently escaped. She shuddered to think of possible recapture by them and she wondered why the ape had brought her here. Now the anthropoids advanced slowly and with noiseless caution, until they could easily look down into the village street.

Zu-tag, loosening the girl's arms, squatted on a limb, motioning her to find footing for herself. Repeatedly he pointed at a hut's open door and by various gestures seemed trying to explain something to her.

At last Olga caught his meaning—her white man was a prisoner there! Darkness was falling. The fires beneath the cooking pots were lighted. She saw the stoves and food piles, suddenly realizing the meaning of those grim preparations! But how could she prevent the feast?

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I agree with all you say about it being the duty of parents when they go to live with their children, to adjust themselves to their children's way of living, but what about the children adjusting themselves to their parents' way of living when they come back to live with the old people, bringing their families with them?

During the depression several times we have had to take in our children and their families and provide for them. We were glad to do this, but we have felt that they might at least have made the return of trying to make things as easy for us as they could. This they have not done. We are in the habit of going to bed early, but they come at all hours of the night and disturb our rest, and if they happen to stay at home they turn on the radio and play it until they run us crazy. They bring their company in without even asking whether it is convenient for us. They tell us what to do and what not to do, criticize the housekeeping and the food and our old-fashioned ways, and we are tired of it. No one has the right to come into another's home and upset the peace and quiet and comfort of it, and this rule should work for young people as well as for old.

Answer—And I don't blame you. It is hard for young people to stand having their routine of life disturbed, but it is sheer torture for the old. The young have many sources of outside distraction and amusement, but all the pleasures of life are encompassed in their homes for the old. Our old houses, our old furniture, our accustomed ways of doing things, our peace and quiet make up the sum of our happiness, and we cannot bear it when vandals come in and wreck our quiet with noise and tumult and tear up all of our habits by the roots.

The art of living in other people's houses is the finest art in the world and the one that is least practiced. Perhaps the reason for this is that few people possess enough sense of justice to accord every man and woman the right to run their own homes in their own way, or enough intuition to perceive when they are making nuisances of themselves or enough tact and adaptability to adopt the customs of the home in which they are staying.

And this goes for people's children as well as for strangers. For the curious thing about children is that they never realize that their parents have any right to their homes or to their money or to spend their declining years in peace and quiet and the pursuit of happiness in their own way. Still less do they realize that when once they have gone from the home nest it is no longer their home. They come back as guests and should demean themselves as guests.

They don't do it, however. When Mary decides that her husband isn't her real soulmate or she gets green-eyed over his blonde secretary, she grabs up the children and rushes back to Father and Mother and dumps her offspring on them. She doesn't consider for a minute that she is upsetting their whole scheme of life; that she is destroying their peace and quiet and order of life; and that she might just as well have put up with an uncongenial husband and as to make them put up with a lot of noisy youngsters. Nor does she consider that it is pretty hard to turn mother into a nursemaid in her old age and to make poor old father hunt up a job because he has more mouths to feed, more backs to clothe and another batch of children to educate.

One of the worst phases of the depression has been not only that so many children had to go back home with their children to be supported, but also that these children were so often so ungrateful and so unappreciative of the sacrifices their parents made for them, and did so little to soften the sacrifices that their fathers and mothers made. They came and went as they pleased without regard to the old people's convenience. They filled the house with noise and confusion. They did not even try to control their children. They kept the radio going half the night. Because they were worried and unhappy they were surly and ill-tempered, and because they were bitter over being dependent they bit the hand that fed them.

Real estate men say that more people are going back into their own homes. Which is a grand break for the old people who will once more be able to resume the even tenor of their ways.

DEAR MISS DIX—People often wonder that men who know themselves to be philanderers and that they never could settle down to loving just one woman, ever marry. I will tell you why. It is because they cannot help themselves. Women drag them to the altar where they would never go of their own accord. A real honest-to-goodness philanderer does not want to marry and he only does it after some woman puts him in a position that forces his hand. My advice to girls is not to "get your man." Let him get you. If this recipe were followed, marriages would drop off 80 per cent, but it would save 50 per cent of the present unhappy marriages.

A PHILANDERER.

Answer—These are words of wisdom which women would do well to lay to heart, because it is undoubtedly true that in their eagerness to catch husbands women do not consider sufficiently the temper and temperament of the men they are marrying nor whether they are good domestic material or not. Nor apparently do they note whether the bridegrooms are dragging them to the altar or they are cooing them to it.

Unfortunately, women have many ardent beliefs about men that experience does not justify. One is that no matter how indifferent a man is about getting married nor how often he puts off his wedding, that he will be perfectly crazy about being married as soon as the ceremony is said over him. Another is that marriage is a sure cure for fickleness and that the man who roamed from flower to flower and chased every petticoat that came his way will settle down into being a one-woman man as soon as he is married. And another faith in which women are strong is that the man who has been a lukewarm lover will turn into a devoted husband and that a wife can always win her husband's love by being in love with him herself and by being patient and kind and a good cook.

If these theories worked out, it would be all right to get your man by hook or crook. Everything would be fine and marriage a grand sweet song. But, alas, marriage seldom comes up to a woman's expectations. Never to her pipe dreams. The man who doesn't go into marriage under a full head of enthusiasm just peters out into indifference and even dislike when he collides with all the bills and ills of domesticity. The man with a wandering foot still roams, and the man who falls in love with his wife after marriage is still a figure in romantic fiction.

So, ladies, take a philanderer's advice and marry the man who wants you. Men are always better satisfied with a thing they picked out themselves.

UNCLE WIGGLY'S PHOTOGRAPH

By HOWARD R. GARRIS

Once upon a time a little boy said to his father:

"Daddy, is there any such a rabbit as Uncle Wiggly?"

"Why of course there is," answered the daddy father. "Don't you read your stories about him every night—how he goes out after adventures in the woods looking for an adventure. The old rabbit gentleman winked his pink nose, he took off his tail suit and made a polite bow."

"Yes, you read me those stories, Daddy, and I like them. But I'd like to see Uncle Wiggly," said the little boy. And his little sister said:

"So would I, Daddy. Couldn't you bring us a picture of Uncle Wiggly so we could be sure he's real and that you aren't making up a story about him?"

"Yes, I'll do that," said the Daddy father. "I'll get you a photograph of Uncle Wiggly. Then you can see him as he is, and you will believe he is real, won't you?"

"Yes," said the little boy. "I'd like a photograph of Uncle Wiggly, Daddy. Please get me one."

"And I'll listen to it play," said Little Sister. "I love to hear it make music."

"Both words sound alike and remember sister isn't as old as you. So you should tell her about it."

"I will," said Brother, rather proud that he was old enough to know the difference between the words. Not too proud, you know, just proud enough. So he told Sister: "A PHOTOGRAPH is something you play music on, like a radio. But a PHOTOGRAPH is a picture of somebody."

"Right," said Daddy. "Now you stay here and I'll go out in the woods and get a picture of Uncle Wiggly."

So Daddy took his camera, which is a machine for making photograph pictures, and out to the woods he went. As it happened, just about the same time, Uncle Wiggly was hopping in the woods looking for an adventure. The old rabbit gentleman winked his pink nose, he took off his tail suit and made a polite bow.

"For," said the rabbit gentleman to himself, "perhaps I may meet some one, and I can practice bowing politely to them." As he took off his hat for the fifth practice time, all of a sudden Daddy stepped out from behind a tree holding his camera. Uncle Wiggly's pink eye. He pointed it at a rabbit to get a photograph picture.

THOUGHT HE WAS A HUNTER

But Uncle Wiggly thought Daddy was a hunter with a gun.

"Oh, don't shoot me! Please don't shoot me!" cried Uncle Wiggly in rabbit talk. "Please don't!"

Daddy couldn't understand rabbit talk, but he saw that Uncle Wiggly was frightened, so he said:

"That's all right! I'm not going to shoot you. I just want to take your picture. Hand me your camera, Uncle Wiggly."

The rabbit gentleman must have known what kind Daddy said. For he stood very still, his tail up, his ears must have known that Daddy said, "Hand me your camera." Daddy pressed the button and PRESTO! Uncle Wiggly's picture was made on a piece of paper.

"Now I'm going to hop back to my bungalow," said Mr. Longears. So away he hopped and Daddy hurried home and showed Brother and Sister the picture he had made. And Brother said:

"Now I'm sure Uncle Wiggly is real." So everybody was happy. It was a real fun doesn't it? A hole in the potato salad. I'll tell you again about Uncle Wiggly and his home work.

Painful Piles

Can Be Quickly Relieved

If you think there is no way to relieve the misery of piles, it's because you don't know of HEM-ROID, an internal medicine, from a prescription written by Dr. Leimbach, a western physician.

The real cause of piles is on the inside—bed circulation of blood in the lower bowel, with the tiny rectal veins full of stagnant, impure blood.

Dr. Leimbach decided the way to relieve piles was internally, with a medicine which would ease the congestion of blood in the veins of the lower bowel and help to heal and restore the sore, tender spots. After many tests he wrote the prescription which has been so successful in giving quick relief from piles.

HEM-ROID is now offered to you with our promise that you may have your money back if you are not completely satisfied after using one bottle.

No matter what kind of piles you have or how long you have had them, HEM-ROID must show you the quick, clean way to get rid of your pile misery or your money will be given back to you.

MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores, or any other druggist can supply you with HEM-ROID and will back up this promise. (Advt.)

Stories of Horror Told By Survivors Of Ss. Silverhazel

Woman Passenger Who Was Drowned First Went Insane; Captain Disappears With His Pet Dog Around His Neck After He Gave Last Lifebelt to Member of Crew

Manila, Nov. 14.—How survivors sang on wave-lashed rocks to keep up their spirits as they saw comrades die was told here today when the U.S.S. Peary docked with forty-three persons rescued from boiling seas where the freighter Silverhazel crashed Sunday.

The tales of heroism and horror told how one woman victim went insane before drowning and how the vessel's missing captain, surrounded by his life belt to a crew member, then disappeared while trying to save his pet dog.

Bodies of two of the disaster's four victims were brought here by the destroyer. Practically all the survivors were suffering from exposure or minor injuries and two crew members who contracted pneumonia were rushed to hospitals.

The vessel, carrying five passengers and a crew of forty-nine, crashed while en route from San Francisco, and it was not until yesterday that all survivors were rescued by rats, either from the wreckage or from the rocks to which they clung for four days.

ON ROCKS TWO NIGHTS
"We were on the rocks for two nights," said Mrs. Jeanne Zerling of Los Angeles, one of the passengers. "The entire party joined in singing to keep up our spirits. Dick Cook, second mate on the Silverhazel, finally thought of making rats from lumber of the wreck."

On these, the survivors floated out to where rescuers from the Peary and the destroyer Bulmer could pick them up.

Other survivors told how Capt. H. A. Lennard surrendered his life-belt to an unprotected crew member as the last raft was ready to leave the rock for the rescue craft, 1,000 feet away.

When all others were aboard the raft, the captain tied his small pet dog around his neck and plunged into the water. He swam a short distance, but the dog's weight apparently was too much, and both disappeared in the turbulent waters of San Bernardino Straits. The scene of the wreck is 350 miles southwest of here.

The Silverhazel's doctor, E. L. Neil-Rinkins, said the ordeal of terror was too much for Mrs. Neil Williams of Los Angeles, who went insane before she slipped off the rock and drowned.

The other death victim, whose body was recovered, was Bernard C. McPherson, apprentice seaman.

As the rescue crew of the vessel left the dock by bus, it gave three lusty cheers for the Peary's crew.

The crew members who have pneumonia are B. Atay and R. Pickersill.

Want Practical Men on Ships

This Will Be Discussed By Delegates to Marine Conference in Geneva

New York, Nov. 14.—Two members of the American delegation to the Marine Conference called from here last week aboard the United States liner Manhattan. They were Andrew Furuseth, president of the International Seamen's Union, and Robert W. Drueer of the Department of Labor, who will represent seamen and the government respectively.

The third member of the delegation, Samuel Aitken, vice-president of Moore and McCormack Incorporated, steamship operators, received his appointment the day after the Manhattan sailed. He left this morning on the St. President Harding for Europe.

Mr. Aitken said four broad classifications would be covered in the conference agenda. These are the regulation of working hours and holiday pay for seamen, protection of seamen in cases of sickness, promotion of seamen's welfare in port, and minimum requirements in manning of ships and the professional fitness of deck and engineering officers.

Before sailing on the Manhattan, Mr. Furuseth said the entire question of national sea power was one of the ability of the men on ships.

"That has been proved in every great naval battle recorded by history," he said. "One of our aims is to have masters, officers and men undergo practical examinations in regard to seamanship as well as in navigation and theories of seamanship. We want not only capable, practical officers and masters, but men who know how to obey their orders."

He said that in the case of two great sea disasters resulting from fires, the Morris Clegg and the General Slocum, the loss of life would have been minimized if the commanders had been "practical seamen."

Both men, he said, headed their ships into the wind, and this action only served to increase the fire.

Mr. Furuseth said his organization favored restoration of laws which would enforce regulations alike on domestic and foreign lines. This, he added, would raise wages on foreign ships, thus equalizing foreign and domestic costs.

The Geneva conference will be the first of its kind since 1926, although there was a meeting in 1929 when the United States was not represented. Twenty-four maritime nations are expected to have representatives in Geneva when the conference opens November 25.

STILL ON RUN

The ferry Quilness is maintaining the run between Sidney and Anacortes, despite the ferry strike in Puget Sound. A. C. Stickley, local agent for the Puget Sound Navigation Company said this morning. The Quilness is still tied up at Seattle and there is no indication as to when she will return to service between Seattle and Victoria.

TO BE OVERHAULED

The Imperial Oil Company's tanker Albertolite, now on her way to San Pedro from Vancouver, is scheduled to be overhauled here in about ten days for annual overhaul. She will be put into the Dominion Government drydock at Esquimalt and the work will be done by Yarrow's Limited.

DUE BACK SOON

The Dominion Government light-house tender Estevan, which is repairing buoys and lights in Queen Charlotte Sound, is expected to return to base in the Inner Harbor early next week, it was announced at the Marine Department's offices this morning.

PLANNING CRUISE

An "all expense" cruise to Victoria and return from Seattle is being planned for the American Thanksgiving Day, which this year falls on Thursday, November 28. The visitors will come here on the Princess Charlotte and will return to Seattle on the Princess Alice.

DRYDOCK HEAD PASSES AWAY

C. W. Wiley, Head of Todd Company in Seattle, Died in New York City

Seattle, Nov. 14.—C. W. Wiley, sixty-five, president of the Todd Seattle Drydocks Incorporated, died early yesterday in New York City while on a business trip east, friends here were informed.

He had been stricken with acute indigestion on the trip east. He left here last Friday night, accompanied by his wife. The widow and a son, George W. a Seattle banker, survive. During World War days, the Todd shipyard employed 8,000 men here at the peak of production. In 1918, however, the company lessened its activities, restricting work to reconstruction, repair and drydocking.

Wiley was born in Massachusetts and at the age of twenty-eight was superintendent of the Boston Steamship Company. He came here in 1902 and in 1910 was named manager of the Alaska Pacific Steamship Company and of the Alaska Coast Company.

In 1914 he joined the James J. Hill interests and was placed in charge of the steamship services of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific Railroads. He became president and general manager of the Todd drydocks in 1916.

Drops Dead While Watching Funeral

Vancouver, Nov. 14.—While paying his last respects at the funeral of Adam Haggarty, a longshoreman, yesterday afternoon, J. J. Murphy collapsed and died on Main Street.

Murphy was one of several hundred longshoremen who participated in the funeral parade on Dunsmuir Avenue to the 900 block Main Street, halting there to salute the hearse as it passed by. As the hearse passed Mr. Murphy dropped dead.

Vicious Whales Attack Vessel

Fisherman Tell How They Charged Their Craft in the Bay of Chaleur

St. John's, N.B., Nov. 14.—A vicious attack by five whales while a sixth, entangled in the anchor cable, threatened to pull their twenty-five-foot boat beneath the surface in the Bay of Chaleur, is described by James Daley and two other fishermen of this community.

"One after another of those fellows came charging the boat, and kept at it for about an hour," he said. "As soon as they got close to us they dived under. Several times I could have touched them with an oar. Quite often their backs just scraped our keel as they went underneath. They were going so fast, that when they came up on the other side and turned to come at us again, they skidded right over on their sides. Several times their tails came within a foot of smashing the boat. What with their splashing and blowing they pretty near drowned us."

"They were coming closer each time they charged, and I knew that it would only be a matter of time before they would strike the boat. I decided to cut the cable, and we got up to the bow. Right then it was about eight inches above water level."

"We gripped the cable to pull it around the side to get at it to cut it, when we felt something slide off, and the bow came up with a jerk. The five whales charged once or twice more, and then disappeared. It was the toughest spot I was ever in in all my thirty years' fishing."

A seventh whale much larger than the others appeared farther from the boat, but did not join in the attack, said Daley.

MAY EQUALIZE PORT CHARGES

Wish to Limit Rivalry and Promote Efficiency in Canadian Ports

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Steps to equalize charges in Canadian ports so as to limit rivalry to one of efficiency rather than the cutting of rates was under consideration, it was learned yesterday. Particular attention was being focused on the proposal in the personal survey of harbor commission offices being conducted by the new central board of departmental experts, it was stated.

While complete standardization of rates may be unfeasible by reason of different customs and practices at the various ocean ports, the suggestion is that port dues at least, as distinct from service charges, should apply equally in Canadian harbors. The step is being discussed as applicable to the harbors of Montreal, Quebec, Chicoutimi, Three Rivers, Halifax, St. John and Vancouver, which come under the central board's control.

Another proposal under consideration, it was stated, would limit the life of future leases to private individuals for wharves, sheds or handling facilities within Canadian harbors to ten years, with an option for renewal. In cases where a very extensive plant was to be erected by the tenant, though, there probably would be some latitude. The view has been put forward that in certain ports terms of leases have been of such a length as to impede harbor development.
